This publication has been prepared to assist in your coverage of Ohio State athletics. Every attempt has been made to ensure its accuracy and thoroughness. On behalf of the Department of Athletics, we would like to thank you for your coverage of Ohio State's 36 intercollegiate varsity sports and look forward to working with you again this year. Please do not hesitate to contact our office if you have any questions or need assistance.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

In order to qualify for media and parking credentials, an applicant must be a full-time, salaried employee of the recognized news organization that is requesting the credential. Please direct all credential requests to Ohio State Athletics Communications. Requests should be made in writing on company letterhead, and can be faxed to 614-292-8547 or e-mailed to widman.12@osu.edu. Confirmation of your request will be made upon receipt and credentials can be obtained 60 minutes before games.

Credentials are limited to members of the working media who are assigned to cover Ohio State basketball. Every effort will be made to fill each request, but because of limited space, each request will be reviewed on a per game basis. Credentials are for adult use only and are non-transferrable. Media will-call is located at door entrance 1212 on the northwest side of Value City Arena. Credentials also will be valid for women's basketball games at St. John Arena.

MORE ON CREDENTIALS

Single-game passes will be mailed to the opposing team's sports information director for distribution one week before the game. All other single-game passes will be held at media will-call located at door entrance 1212 of Value City Arena (northwest side of the building).

ROAD REQUESTS

Please direct all credential requests for Ohio State's road games to the host school's sports information director.

OPPONENT REQUESTS

Please direct all requests for opponent media guides, interviews and credentials to the team's sports information director.

MEDIA PARKING

The primary media parking lot is located on the west side of Value City Arena. To gain entrance to this restricted area access Borror Drive from either Fred Taylor Drive or Olentangy River Road. Please display your pass prominently in your rearview mirror once in the campus area. Traffic officers on duty will help direct you to the designated lot.

PHONE LINES- VISITING RADIO & TELEVISION

A limited number of telephones are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Co-op telephone lines are available for radio broadcasts with prior approval from Ohio State Athletics Communications at 614-292-6861. Additionally, all non-Big Ten visiting radio stations planning to broadcast from Value City Arena must contact WBNS Radio station manager Skip Mosaic at 614-460-3745 three weeks prior to the scheduled game. If private telephone lines are desired, orders may be placed through the Ohio State Telecommunications Network Center at 614-292-8648.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photo credentials are issued to daily newspapers, wire services and periodical publications. Photographers are only permitted to shoot in specific locations of Value City Arena. Please seek a member of the athletics communications department for assistance. For the safety and convenience of the players, flash photography is strictly prohibited.

GAME DAY SERVICES

Members of the working media will be provided with a game program, game notes, halftime and final box scores, and a complete play-by-play summary of the game. Stories should be filed in the media work room where additional phone lines are available for use.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All Ohio State player interviews must be arranged through the athletics communications department at 614-292-6861. Players are available upon request. The cooperation of the media is requested in not phoning the players at home or interviewing them at times other than those designated.

ASSISTANT COACHES/SUPPORT STAFF INTERVIEWS

Interviews with any member of the Ohio State women's basketball or support staffs must be arranged through athletics communications at 614-292-6861.

PRACTICES

The Ohio State women's basketball team practices in the Value City Arena auxiliary gym and Value City Arena located at 555 Borror Drive.

POST GAME PROCEDURES

Ohio State maintains a closed locker room policy at home and on the road. Postgame interviews are conducted in the media room of Value City Arena. Interviews with both coaches will be held following a 10-minute intermission. Player interviews will be honored upon request.

WEEKLY RELEASE

Ohio State's weekly release, which includes notes, statistics and box scores, are available before each game on the Buckeyes' official website — OhioStateBuckeyes.com.

OHIOSTATEBUCKEYES.COM

This is the official web site of the Ohio State Athletics Department. Ohio State basketball releases as well as a wide variety of related athletics department information can be found on the web, including links to all 36 varsity sports.

BIG TEN TELECONFERENCE

The Big Ten will host a women's basketball coaches teleconference on Feb. 28 heading into the Big Ten tournament. Contact the Big Ten Communications department at 847-696-1010 (ext. 146) for times and the teleconference phone number.

REFERENCES

Upon first reference, please use The Ohio State University. References thereafter should be Ohio State.

The nickname for the Ohio State women's basketball team is Buckeyes - not Lady Buckeyes.

The Buckeyes play at Value City Arena at The Jerome Schottenstein Center in Columbus, Ohio. Value City Arena is acceptable for all references.

BIG TEN TELEVISION AGREEMENTS

Over the last few years, the Big Ten has reached a series of milestone media agreements to provide the conference with its greatest television exposure ever, including extensions with CBS (for basketball) and ABC/ESPN (for football, basketball and volleyball) and the creation of the Big Ten Network, a national network devoted to Big Ten athletic and academic programs. The conference's new media agreements will result in the broadcast of more than 500 events nationally and regionally beginning with the 2007-08 academic year, compared to 300 events in the final year of the previous agreements.

CBS

In December of 2004, the Big Ten announced a multi-year agreement with CBS Sports to extend the network's broadcast rights for conference basketball games through the 2009-10 campaign.

The agreement guarantees Big Ten teams 26 appearances per season with the possibility of up to 30 appearances beginning with the 2008-09 campaign. That total includes the semifinals and championship game of the annual Big Ten Men's Basketball Tournament, which have been broadcast by CBS every year since the inaugural event in 1998 and have ranked among the network's highest-rated regular-season games each season. In addition, CBS will have the opportunity to select a wildcard game on each of the final three weekends of Big Ten play starting with the 2007-08 campaign. Additional appearances by Big Ten women's basketball teams will also be featured on CBS. CBS has been the national network home for Big Ten men's basketball since the 1991-92 campaign.

ESPN

In June of 2006, the Big Ten signed a new 10-year national rights contract with ABC/ESPN. Big Ten action has been featured on ESPN since 1979, the network's first year. The new agreement, which begins during the 2007-08 season, includes approximately 60 men's basketball games to air on an ESPN network (ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU and ESPN360), including contests on Tuesday and Thursday of the conference season, plus up to eight Saturday games during conference play. For women's basketball and volleyball, a total of 100 events will appear on an ESPN network over the course of the agreement, including the championship games of the Big Ten Women's Basketball Tournament. Additionally, through ESPN's collection of new media outlets such as ESPN.com, Mobile ESPN, ESPN360 and ESPN VOD, fans will receive live events (including simulcasts), extended video highlights including in-progress games, features and more. Big Ten coverage will also be available on ESPN Classic and throughout the world through ESPN International.

BIG TEN NETWORK

In June 2006, the Big Ten announced the creation of the Big Ten Network, a national network devoted to Big Ten athletic and academic programs. Available to all cable and satellite providers nationwide, with most programs offered in stunning high-definition television (HDTV), the network allows fans to see their home teams, regardless of where they live.

The Big Ten Network launched its inaugural season on Aug. 30, 2007 with football, men's and women's basketball, a nightly studio show, classics and coaches shows, along with more Olympic sporting events and exposure for women's sports than has ever been aired on any other network. In June 2007, the Big Ten announced that the Big Ten Network will become the first national network to commit to "event equality" for men's and women's sports on all network-controlled media within the first three years of launch. This dedication to "event equality" highlights the Big Ten's ongoing dedication to gender equity, which is aligned with the commitment of conference institutions to provide fairness for all female student-athletes.

The network is led by President Mike Silverman, a former Disney executive who came to the network after serving as the general manager and senior vice president of ABC Cable Networks Group since April of 2004, managing the company's equity in such channels as Lifetime Television, A&E Network and the History Channel, each of which recorded their best financial performance in 2005. Silverman was also responsible for developing and launching new cable channels, shows and other key initiatives.

The programming on the Big Ten Network and alternative network-controlled platforms will include, but is not limited to:

- More than 35 football games each season
- More than 105 regular season men's basketball games and 55 women's basketball regular season games
- A nightly studio show including segments from each campus
- Women's sports, including basketball, volleyball, soccer and softball
- More than 170 Olympic sporting events including baseball, soccer, tennis, volleyball, swimming, diving and more
- Classic games and historical footage from ESPN and ABC libraries
- Original campus programming produced by Big Ten member universities showcasing their academic excellence, talented students and award-winning programs
- Weekly coaches shows

Located in the historic Montgomery Ward building in Chicago, the Big Ten Network is the first national television network to call the largest city in the Midwest its home. The original section of the building was designated as a historic landmark in 2000 for its significant role in American retail history. The space includes two studios and three control rooms as well as a 20,000 square-foot office space.

In May 2007, the Big Ten Network announced its first on-air hire, signing ESPN college sports expert Dave Revsine to be its lead studio host. Revsine joined ESPN in October of 1996 as an anchor for ESPNNews and filled a variety of roles for the network over the past 10 years. The Northwestern graduate has anchored SportsCenter, hosted ESPN Radio's College GameDay for the last six years and hosted ESPN Radio's coverage of several BCS Championship games. He also hosted studio halftimes for basketball and co-hosted ESPN's coverage of the last two men's Final Fours.

In addition to airing more coverage of Big Ten sports than ever before, the Big Ten Network will also provide numerous benefits to communities around the Big Ten. Those include increased exposure for women's sports, providing positive role models for girls; a greater economic impact to the communities from added sporting event production, with the potential to generate higher attendance; and greater national exposure for the excellence that surrounds the academic endeavors of Big Ten universities, some of the most highly regarded in the nation. Also, an internship program at each of the 11 universities will offer students training for careers in sports, television and entertainment.

The Big Ten Network is a joint venture between subsidiaries of the Big Ten Conference and Fox Cable Networks. For more information regarding the Big Ten Network, visit www.BigTenNetwork.com.

JIM FOSTER

HEAD COACH | 10TH SEASON | TEMPLE '80

Jim Foster is in his 10th season at Ohio State and his 34th overall as a head coach in 2011-12. His collegiate experience consists of jobs at Ohio State, Vanderbilt and St. Joseph's (Pa.) universities. Throughout his coaching career, the Abington, Pa., native has posted a 740-287 (.720) record and his squads have made 26 postseason appearances (25 NCAA tournaments), including 12 consecutive NCAA tournaments. His is the eighth-winningest active coach in Division I and is just the second collegiate coach - men's or women's at any level - to win at least 200 games at three different schools.

At Ohio State, he has helped the Buckeyes qualify for a school-record nine consecutive NCAA tournaments and rank in the national Top 10 in four of the last six seasons. A four-time Big Ten coach of the year (2005-07, '09), he led the Buckeyes to a record-setting sixth consecutive Big Ten regular season title and a second straight tournament title in 2010 while setting a program record with 31 wins. During the last seven seasons, Ohio State has the ninth-most wins (193) in Division I women's college basketball and is one of nine schools to win at least 20 games over the last nine years.

Since he was hired, Foster has mentored seven McDonald's High School All-Americans, six WNBA Draft picks and two State Farm/WBCA All-Americans in Jantel Lavender (2009, '10, '11) and Jessica Davenport (2005, '06, '07). In the process, he and his players have turned Value City Arena into one of the most intimidating venues for opposing teams as his Buckeyes have posted a remarkable 113-9 record at home over the last seven years and a 140-13 mark overall.

But probably the most impressive statistic goes way beyond wins, tournament births and championships. Throughout his coaching career, Coach Foster has preached the importance of academics. And in addition to his players consistently earning high marks in the classroom, every student-athlete who has played for Foster at St. Joe's, Vanderbilt and Ohio State has gone on to earn their degree. Most recently, the women's basketball squad was honored once again with an APR (Academic Progress Rate) score in the top 10 percent of all Division I squads in the sport.

A RETURN TO THE SWEET 16 IN 2011

Last season the Buckeyes went 24-10, captured their third straight Big Ten tournament title and advanced to their second Sweet 16 in three years -- but not before experiencing some bumps in the road. After starting the season 7-0 and ranked in the top 10, the Buckeyes dropped nine of their next 15 games to drop out of the AP Top 25 for the first time in 130 weeks. After many had written the Buckeyes off, Foster rallied his troops to win their next 11 games that took them all the way to the NCAA Sweet 16 where they eventually lost to No. 1 seed Tennessee.

All-American Jantel Lavender would go on to become the first Big Ten player - men's or women's - to win Big Ten player of the year honors all four years and also earn WBCA All-America honors for the third year in a row. She broke numerous Ohio State and Big Ten records while becoming OSU's all-time leading scorer (2,818) and rebounder (1,422) and setting an NCAA record by scoring in double-figures in all 136 career games. Samantha Prahalis would earn second team all-Big Ten honors, Tayler Hill was named to the all-defensive team while Ashley Adams earned a spot on the all-freshman team. In April 2011, Lavender was chosen 5th overall by the Los Angeles Sparks in the WNBA Draft.

OHIO STATE MAKES BIG TEN HISTORY IN 2010

Foster's Buckeyes continued their dominance in 2009-10, doing what no Big Ten basketball team - men's or women's - has done in the history of the conference in winning their sixth-consecutive league championship and the school's 13th overall. They set a school-record with 31 victories (31-5) and finished 15-3 in the Big Ten before winning the Big Ten tournament for the second year in a row and the third in the past five years. The Buckeyes also became the earliest team to clinch the Big Ten with its victory over Purdue on Feb. 11, both in terms of calendar days and games remaining. Ohio State also won the 2009 Preseason WNIT, scoring more than 90 points in all four wins over Eastern Illinois, Bowling Green, West Virginia and Oklahoma State and set a WNIT scoring record with 367 points in the four games. En route to scoring just below 80 points per game, Ohio State set a school record with 238 three-pointers and led the NCAA in 3FG percentage (40.2 percent). They set a conference record with 17 made three-pointers in the road win at Penn State.

Individually, Jantel Lavender earned State Farm/WBCA All-America honors for the second straight year, the fifth Ohio State All-American in the past six years. Lavender also won Big Ten player of the year honors for the third year in a row and became the first Buckeye to score 2,000 points in her junior season.

First team all-Big Ten selection and honorable mention All-American Samantha Prahalis emerged as one of the top point guards in the country as a sophomore, setting a Big Ten record with 289 assists and becoming just the second player over the past 10 years to average at least 16.0 points and 8.0 assists per game. Junior Brittany Johnson, who set a program record with a .481 3FG percentage, was an honorable mention all-Big Ten selection while senior Shavelle Little was named to the all-defensive team.

BUCKEYES TIE BIG TEN RECORD WITH FIFTH-STRAIGHT TITLE IN 2009

The 2008-09 season saw the Buckeyes run and gun to a record-tying fifth straight Big Ten championship, a Big Ten tournament title and a berth in the NCAA Sweet 16 as Foster won his fourth Big Ten coach of the year honor in the past five years and his third Dispatch Ohio coach of the year honor. Foster made his 10th trip to the Sweet 16 -- eight at Vanderbilt and two at Ohio State -- as the Buckeyes made a school record-tying seventh consecutive and 18th overall appearance in the NCAA tournament. The Scarlet and Gray finished the season 29-6, tying for the third-most wins in Division I.

A plethora of individual honors followed. Sophomore Jantel Lavender took home State Farm/WBCA and USBWA All-America honors -- the fourth WBCA All-American at Ohio State in the past five years and the sixth different All-American under Foster in his career. Lavender also won Big Ten player of the year honors for the second consecutive season and was named the Big Ten tournament's most outstanding player. She was the only Division I player to rank in the Top 20 in scoring (11th, 20.8), rebounding (10th, 10.9) and field goal percentage (20th, .541) and set a Big Ten single-season record with 374 rebounds.

Bursting onto the national scene was rookie point guard Samantha Prahalis who was named Big Ten freshman of the year by the coaches and media, a second team selection by the media and a finalist for the Nancy Lieberman Award, given to the nation's most outstanding point guard. Prahalis set an Ohio State freshman record with 203 assists, good for second on the all-time single-season list, and led the Big Ten with 5.8 assists per game, good for 15th nationally.

Junior Shavelle Little became the second player in conference history to be named league's defensive player of the year in consecutive seasons while senior Star Allen was named all-Big Ten third team by both the coaches and the media.

OHIO STATE MAKES IT FOUR IN A ROW IN 2008

Though it doesn't reflect in the overall record, Foster may have pulled off one of his best coaching jobs in 2007-08. Despite the loss of All-American and three-time Big Ten player of the year Jessica Davenport, All-Big Ten performer Brandie Hoskins and Stephanie Blanton, Foster led a relatively young and inexperienced squad to a fourth-consecutive Big Ten crown (co-champs with Iowa) and made their sixth-straight appearance in the NCAA tournament, finishing 22-9 overall and 13-5 in the Big Ten. For a majority of the season, Foster featured a starting lineup that saw just one returning starter (Marscilla Packer) from the previous season while being forced to shuffle his regular starting lineup on more than a few occasions.

The Buckeyes were led by freshman phenom Jantel Lavender, who enjoyed the greatest season by an Ohio State freshman since Katie Smith in 1993. Lavender was voted the 2008 Big Ten co-Player of the Year (coaches), becoming the first Big Ten freshman – men's or women's – to win player of the year honors. She also was named the Big Ten player of the week a record four times by a rookie. An honorable mention Associated Press All-American, Lavender was the second-leading freshman scorer (17.6 ppg) and third-leading freshman rebounder (9.9 rpg) in the nation and ranked among the Top 3 in the Big Ten in three major categories. The Cleveland native set Ohio State freshman records for field goals (232) and rebounds (306) in a season while her 306 boards tied her for the second-most all-time.

Point guard Shavelle Little battled a knee injury during the second half of the season, but still took home Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors despite not playing at 100 percent the last two months of the season. Marscilla Packer, a second-team All-Big Ten performer, finished her career second on Ohio State's all-time 3-point list with 236 makes. In April 2008, Packer was selected in the third round of the WNBA Draft by the Phoenix Mercury -- the fifth Buckeye under Foster's watch to be drafted. Junior Ashlee Trebilcock, an honorable mention All-Big Ten pick, started all 31 games, averaging 11.0 points in Big Ten games.

Foster also watched the senior class of Packer, Tamarah Riley and Alice Jamen go out as the winningest class in school history with 109 victories and four Big Ten championships.

THREE-PEAT COMPLETE IN 2007

The 2006-07 season saw the Buckeyes successfully defend their reign as Big Ten champion for the third season in a row. The Buckeyes finished 28-4 overall and 15-1 in league play. Ohio State won 17 consecutive games and got off to its best regular season (24-1) and Big Ten (13-0) start in team history. The Buckeyes shot 51 percent and led the country for the third time in the last three seasons.

Foster became the first in Big Ten history to win three coach of the year honors in succession. He guided Jessica Davenport to her third-consecutive Big Ten player of the year honor and also helped Brandie Hoskins land All-Big Ten first team honors. Star Allen, in her first season as a starter, was awarded second-team all-league and Marscilla Packer took third team laurels for the third year in a row.

BUCKEYES SUCCESSFULLY DEFEND BIG TEN CROWN IN 2005-06

In 2005-06, Foster guided OSU to a 29-3 overall mark that included a program record-tying 20-game win streak. Under Foster, Ohio State gained its second-consecutive Big Ten regular season title and won the Buckeyes' first all-time conference tournament championship. Following the league titles, Ohio State earned its second all-time No. 1 seed in the NCAA tournament and first since the 1993 season.

The Buckeyes led the Big Ten in seven overall team categories, including field goal percentage, field goal percentage defense, assists and points allowed per game. For the fourth season in a row, Ohio State ranked in the national Top 5 in field goal percentage at .492 (904-1,836).

A 2006 Naismith Coach of the Year finalist and repeat winner of the Big Ten Coach of the Year honor, Foster helped Jessica Davenport also repeat as Big Ten Player of the Year as she led the conference in scoring, field goal percentage, rebounds and blocked shots. Davenport also gained her second-consecutive spots on the WBCA/Kodak, Associated Press and USBWA All-America teams.

Debbie Merrill, Brandie Hoskins and Marscilla Packer all landed 2006 All-Big Ten honors. Packer led the league in 3-point field goals and 3-point field goal percentage. From her post position, Merrill topped the Buckeyes in assists and was second in the conference in assists-to-turnover ratio. She was drafted by the WNBA's Connecticut Sun in April. Hoskins added 2006 Big Ten Tournament Most Outstanding Player to her regular season honor.

In addition, guard Kim Wilburn was named 2006 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year after she led the league in steals for the third time in four seasons.

Academically, four Buckeyes earned Academic All-Big Ten status. Tia Battle and Candace Dark gathered their second and third such honors, respectively, while Stephanie Blanton and Alice Jamen gained their second and first academic league honors.

BUCKEYES REACH NEW HEIGHTS IN FOSTER'S THIRD YEAR

In 2004-05, Foster helped Ohio State to its first 30-win campaign in program history and a share of the Big Ten regular season title for the first time since 1992-93.

The team also established program records in games played, three-point field goals, three-point field goal percentage, free throw percentage, assists and blocks, while leading the nation with a 50.8 field goal percentage.

Foster became Ohio State's first Big Ten Coach of the Year since Tara VanDerveer received the honor in 1984 and '85. The 2004-05 Buckeyes' shared the league title with Michigan State, the eventual national runner-up, and earned OSU's first No. 1-seed in the Big Ten tournament. Ohio State's perfect 17-0 record in Columbus was the best for any squad in the 40-year history of OSU basketball. Foster's 2004-05 squad was ranked No. 2 in the AP rankings for three-consecutive weeks. The No.2 ranking is the highest in OSU program history.

Foster mentored several Buckeyes to individual honors in the 2004-05 season, including center Jessica Davenport, who was selected Big Ten Player of the Year by both the coaches and media. A first-team selection on the Associated Press and Kodak/WBCA All-America teams, Davenport was a finalist for the Wooden Award, the Naismith Trophy and Wade Trophy for national player of the year.

During the season, Davenport collected five Big Ten player of the Week honors and also was named WBCA Player of the Month for January.

In addition, Caitly Matter earned her third second-team honor from the conference, while Hoskins was named third-team and later picked up all-tournament accolades.

Matter also was named an honorable mention All-American by the AP and was selected as a WBCA All-Star.

Personally, Foster was recognized as a finalist for the WBCA Coach of the Year award and Naismith Coach of the Year award. For the second time in three season, he was voted the Columbus Dispatch Ohio Collegiate Coach of the Year.

YEAR TWO IN COLUMBUS

Foster's second year at Ohio State continued the momentum he built during his inaugural campaign in Columbus. The Buckeyes went 21-10, made a trip to the second round of the 2004 NCAA Tournament and won 11 of their final 14 contests to finish third (11-5) in a conference that touted a Final Four team and two Top 5 squads.

The top shooting team in the country with a .510 average, Foster's team produced two members of the Ohio State 1,000-point club (Caitly Matter and LaToya Turner) and four all-conference selections, including two from Foster's initial recruiting class at Ohio State.

The media chose Jessica Davenport as the 2004 Big Ten Freshman of the Year and fellow rookie Brandie Hoskins joined Davenport on the 2004 Big Ten Coaches' All-Freshman Team. Matter, a junior, earned spots on both the media and coaches' second teams and Turner, a senior, was a third-team media pick and an honorable mention coaches' honoree with Davenport. Davenport also landed a spot on the coaches' honorable mention all-league squad.

In the fall of 2003, Alice Jamen, McDonald's All-American Marscilla Packer and McDonald's All-American Nominee Tamarah Riley committed to Ohio State and joined sophomore transfer Tia Battle to comprise Foster's second recruiting class.

FIRST YEAR AS BUCKEYE HEAD COACH

In his initial year with the Buckeyes, Foster, the seventh head basketball coach at Ohio State, became the first Ohio State women's coach named Columbus Dispatch Ohio Women's College Basketball Coach of the Year. The Buckeyes' 22-10 record was the best since the 1992-93 season and the squad's 14-0 home record was only the eighth time in Ohio State history, and the first since the 1992-93 season, that a Buckeye team was perfect in Columbus. The squad finished with a No. 20 ranking in the Associated Press' final poll. In addition to the NCAA accomplishments, Foster's Ohio State team cracked the Top 25 in January of 2003 for the first time since the 1998-99 season. The Buckeyes, who earned a No. 4 seed in the NCAA tournament, won the opening round game against Weber State, 66-44, and were eliminated by No. 5 Louisiana Tech on the Lady Techsters' home court. Additionally, Ohio State made it to the Big Ten tournament championship game for the first time since 1994-95 by beating No. 5 Michigan State (71-55) and No. 1 Penn State (72-61) before falling to No. 3 Purdue, 67-65.

During the 2002-03 season, two Buckeye players were named Big Ten player of the week for the first time since the 1994-95 season, two games took place in historic St. John Arena and senior Courtney Coleman, a WBCA/Kodak All-America Honorable Mention selection, was drafted as the first pick of the second round to the WNBA's Connecticut Sun. Coleman won the NCAA field-goal percentage title and sophomore Caitly Matter was given the 2003 Edward S. Steitz Award, which is given to the best 3-point shooter in the country. Additionally, Coleman, Matter and freshman Kim Wilburn received an abundance of all-conference accolades.

Michelle Muñoz joined McDonald's All-Americans in Jessica Davenport and Brandie Hoskins and the 2003 Dispatch/Agonis Club Co-Player of the Year Stephanie Blanton as Foster's inaugural recruiting class at Ohio State. Joe Smith, director of Women's Basketball News Service, tabbed Foster's first recruiting class as "one of the top two or three classes in the country."

PRIOR TO OHIO STATE

At Vanderbilt, Foster compiled a 256-99 record in 11 seasons (1991-2002) with an impressive .721 winning percentage, a 1993 Final Four appearance, four Elite Eight trips and three Sweet 16 finishes. During his tenure with the Commodores, 10 of his teams finished the season ranked in the Top 25.

During the 2001-02 season, Vanderbilt mirrored what had come to be expected of the Commodores. Foster's team earned a second Elite Eight finish in as many years, a Southeastern Conference (SEC) tournament championship, No. 4 Associated Press and No. 5 USA Today/ESPN rankings and his second 30-win campaign. In addition, Foster recorded his 500th career victory with an 81-78 win over Arkansas in the SEC tournament semifinal game March 2, 2002.

Taking the head coaching position at Vanderbilt May 22, 1991, Foster quickly made his mark on the program. Vanderbilt finished among the Top 10 for the first time (No. 7 in the USA Today/CNN poll) and made its best postseason finish at that time - an Elite Eight appearance in the 1992 NCAA Tournament. Season-ticket sales tripled at Vanderbilt by the beginning of the 1992-93 season and the Commodores were championship contenders at both the conference and national levels.

Prior to Foster's arrival, Vanderbilt had yet to win more than half its conference games, but he quickly reversed that trend. Under his leadership, the Commodores captured three SEC postseason tournament championship titles (1993, '95 and 2002) and made five trips (1993, '94, '95, 2001 and '02) to the SEC tournament championship game.

During the 1992-93 season, Foster's squad tallied a record-setting 30-3 season that included a No. 1 ranking, the SEC postseason tournament title and ultimately a spot in the Final Four. (Coincidentally, Ohio State also was in the Final Four that year but the teams did not meet.) Notably, the battle against intrastate rival Tennessee Jan. 30, 1993 featured the top two teams in the nation battling it out in Memorial Gymnasium. It marked the first women's basketball game at Vanderbilt to be an advance sellout. Additionally, Foster was named the 1993 United States Basketball Writers Association Coach of the Year.

Prior to his Vanderbilt appointment, Foster spent 13 years at St. Joseph's (Pa.) University (1978-91), where he recorded a 248-126 (.663) record and seven postseason appearances (six NCAA and one AIAW - Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women). During a span of six years (1985-90), the Hawks captured 1985, 1989 and 1990 first-place finishes in the Atlantic 10 Conference, six 20-plus win seasons and competed in the NCAA tournament every year. In 1985, Foster garnered NCAA coach of the year honors. His team was 25-5 that season, won the Atlantic 10 Conference title and made the NCAA tournament.

HIGH MARKS IN THE CLASSROOM

Points, steals and rebounds have little to do with Foster's most impressive record - the achievements of his players in the academic arena.

At Ohio State, Foster's 2002-03 team produced four OSU Scholar-Athletes and the number increased to six in 2003-04 and 2004-05. In each of his first two seasons, three Buckeyes were named to academic All-Big Ten squads. In 2004-05, that number increased to five league academic honorees and was counted off at four in 2005-06 and 2006-07.

Caitly Matter completed her senior season in 2004-05 as a first-team member of the Senior CLASS award - Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School - Award, which is given to the outstanding female and male senior NCAA Division I basketball player. In 2003, Courtney Coleman was named a member of the second team for the 2003 Senior CLASS Award.

Student-athletes under Foster's leadership have earned numerous academic honors. Among the accolades are GTE CoSIDA Academic All-America, district and honorable mention Academic All-America, the SEC's prestigious Bud McWhorter Award and Vanderbilt's Academic Athlete of the Year honors.

In 2007, Stephanie Blanton was named Academic All-District as a health sciences major.

During his 11-year tenure at Vanderbilt, Foster coached 54 SEC academic honor roll players. Notably in 1992, Vanderbilt set a conference record with nine players named to the SEC academic honor roll and in 1993 the entire starting lineup from the Final Four team was named to the conference honor roll. Foster also coached one academic All-American and two district All-Americans while at St. Joseph's.

CONTRIBUTIONS BEYOND THE COURT

Foster has made his mark throughout the basketball community in roles other than coaching. Foster was selected to join the NCAA Women's Basketball Rules Committee in September of 2003 for a four-year appointment.

In 1992, he became the first and only male to be elected president of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association, a group whose mission is to "promote women's basketball by unifying coaches at all levels to develop a reputable identity for the sport of women's basketball and to foster and promote the development of the game in all of its aspects as an amateur sport for women and girls."

Foster's contribution to the game of basketball also can be witnessed indirectly. More than 20 of Foster's former players are now coaches at every level of the game. Additionally, a number of his former assistants are now guiding their own programs, most notably Connecticut's Geno Auriemma, Notre Dame's Muffet McGraw, Kansas State's Deb Patterson and St. Joseph's Cindy Griffin.

Besides basketball, Foster also has experience at the administration level. From Nov. 21, 1995 to Aug. 1, 1996 Foster was Vanderbilt's interim athletics director, during which time he oversaw 15 varsity sports and about 300 student-athletes. Described as being "anything but just a caretaker," Foster added to the diversity of the university by hiring women and minorities to the athletics department's management team. During his appointment, Vanderbilt went through the NCAA certification process and was ultimately granted certification in 1997.

Foster's influence and efforts reached beyond the Vanderbilt athletics department. In 1996, Foster was honored by the Vanderbilt Opportunity Development Center with an Affirmative Action award for his efforts to help diversify the Vanderbilt community and to elevate the lives of others in Nashville.

INTERNATIONAL INVOLVEMENT

Foster has a long-standing relationship with USA Basketball, the national governing body in the United States. He earned a gold medal at the helm of the 2003 USA Basketball World Championship For Young Women team, which was comprised of a dozen 21-and-under elite athletes chosen from the USA Basketball Women's National Team Trials at the U.S. Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colo. The team went 7-1 and brought home the gold medal from the inaugural FIBA World Championship For Young Women event, which took place July 25-Aug. 3 in Sibenik, Croatia. Notably, Ohio State junior guard Caitly Matter and sophomore point guard Kim Wilburn were both invited to the trials. Matter was extended an invitation to join the Young Women's team.

Foster was named the 2003 USA Basketball Developmental Coach of the Year and Matter earned a spot as part of the 2003 USA Basketball Team of the Year, both of which honors were selected by the USA Basketball Executive Committee. Foster and Matter (as part of the team) were also nominated by USA Basketball for the U.S. Olympic Committee's developmental coach of the year and team of the year awards, respectively.

In August 2005, Jessica Davenport and Brandie Hoskins were selected to play for USA Basketball at the World University Games in Izmir, Turkey. The junior tandem helped Team USA post a 7-0 mark for the tournament and claim the gold medal.

Prior to his appointment in the summer of 2003, Foster served as the head coach during the 1997 World University Games at Marsala, Sicily, Italy. The United States had not won gold in that particular event since 1991, but under Foster, the Americans were undefeated (6-0) and averaged 93 points a game. The U.S. defeated Cuba 100-82 in the gold medal game.

He also served as the head coach for both the USA Junior World Championship squad in 1993 and the Junior National Team in 1991. Foster was an assistant coach for gold-medal winning teams at the World Championship (1990), Goodwill Games (1990) and U.S. Olympic Festival (1987). He also was an assistant coach for the 1992 U.S. Olympic Team that captured the bronze medal in Barcelona, Spain.

Besides coaching contributions, Foster also served on two selection committees for USA Basketball. From 1989-92, Foster was on the USA Basketball Games Committee, which selected players and staff for various teams, including the 1990 World Championship team, the 1992 Olympic team and staff and players for all collegiate-level teams. He also served on the USA Basketball Player Selection Committee from 1993-96, which chose players to fill rosters on different teams, such as the 1994 World Championship team, the 1995-96 Women's Senior National team and the 1996 Olympic team, not to mention a variety of collegiate-level squads.

Foster also has been invited to numerous coaching clinics around the world, including countries such as Korea, Australia and Croatia.

Debbie Black is beginning her seventh season as an assistant coach for the Buckeyes in 2011-12.

She rejoined Jim Foster's coaching staff after closing out a stellar 18-season professional career in 2005. Black, who played for Foster at St. Joseph's from 1985-88, is in her second stint as an assistant with her former mentor. She previously coached with Foster in 1999-2000 at Vanderbilt. During her tenure, Black has helped the Buckeyes land several top recruits while assisting in the development of several Buckeye guards over the years.

Last season Black helped mentor sophomore guard Tayler Hill to Big Ten all-defensive team honors while helping point guard Samantha Prahalis lead the Big Ten in assists for the second straight year. The year prior, Prahalis led the Big Ten and finished in the top 5 nationally in assists while earning first team all-Big Ten honors.

In 2008-09, Black helped two of her guards win Big Ten individual honors as Little repeated as defensive player of the year while rookie Samantha Prahalis won freshman of the year honors after leading all freshmen in scoring (10.2 ppg) and leading all players with 5.8 assists per game. Prahalis would go on to win first team All-Big Ten honors in 2009-10 while Little was named to the all-defensive team for the third consecutive year.

In 2007-08 Black helped Shavelle Little flourish into the best on-the-ball defender in the conference as Little took home Big Ten defensive player of the year honors as a sophomore while leading the league in steals.

In 2006-07, Black helped break in a pair of freshmen point guards. Black mentored Maria Moeller, a starter in all 32 games, to rank third in the Big Ten in assist-to-turnover. Little was not far behind Moeller that year, playing in 29 games and pocketing 41 steals.

In Black's first season with the Buckeyes in 2005-06, the former WNBA Defensive Player of the Year guided Ohio State guard Kim Wilburn to 2006 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors.

Black ended her professional career April 13, 2005, retiring from the Connecticut Sun of the WNBA. She also played with Miami and Utah of the WNBA after All-Star seasons with the Colorado Xplosion of the American Basketball League. With the Xplosion, Black recorded a rare feat with a quadruple-double against the Atlanta Glory Dec. 8, 1996 when she scored 10 points, handed out 12 assists, pulled down 14 rebounds and recorded 10 steals.

In the all-time WNBA records book, Black retired ranked No. 8 in career steals (315) and tied for 10th in assists (612). Black also is first all-time in career steal-to-turnover ratio and fourth in career steals per game (2.26). She was the WNBA Defensive Player of the Year with the Miami Sol in 2001. She finished her ABL career as the all-time leader in steals (330) and ranked second in assists (608) and was named 1997 ABL Defensive Player of the Year.

At St. Joseph's, Black helped lead the Hawks to two Big 5 championships and an Atlantic 10 title. A native of Philadelphia, Black completed her collegiate career ranked as St. Joe's all-time career leader in assists (718) and steals (572). A multi-sport athlete, Black earned 12 varsity letters in basketball, field hockey and softball. She reaped many awards on the court, including 1988 All-District and All-Atlantic 10 Conference First Team honors after being named second-team all-league in 1986 and to the All-Rookie team in 1985. She was inducted into the Philadelphia Big Five Hall of Fame in 1995, the St. Joseph's Basketball Hall of Fame in 1994 and the St. Joseph's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2000.

Ed Baldwin was promoted to assistant coach in May of 2008 after completing his third and final season in 2007-08 as director of basketball operations at Ohio State. He is entering his fourth season as assistant coach in 2011-12 and seventh overall on Jim Foster's staff.

A native of Fayetteville, N.C., Baldwin brings two decades of college experience to the Ohio State staff, including 13 years as a head coach at UNC-Charlotte from 1988-2000. Prior to Ohio State, Baldwin was at South Carolina for a two-year stint after serving tenures at Temple and North Carolina State.

In his first full year as an assistant on Foster's staff in 2008-09, Ohio State won 29 games, captured its fifth-straight Big Ten championship and reached the Sweet 16. In 2009-10, he helped the Buckeyes to a school-record 31 wins and a record sixth-straight conference crown. Then last season, the Buckeyes captured their third straight Big Ten tournament title before advancing to their second Sweet 16 in 3 years.

During his tenure in Columbus he has helped bring in several Top 20 recruiting classes, which have included Jantel Lavender, Samantha Prahalis. He also assisted in the recruitment of Ohio State's latest Top 20 recruiting class, highlighted by two-time Minnesota player of the year Tayler Hill and Ohio co-player of the Year Emilee Harmon. The 2010 class was highlighted by Ohio Gatorade Player of the Year Amy Scullion.

At Temple, Baldwin was an assistant coach with Dawn Staley for two seasons, joining the Owls before the 2001-02 season. He helped lead Temple to its first-ever Atlantic 10 Championship and its first NCAA Tournament appearance in his initial season.

Before moving to Philadelphia for the Temple position, Baldwin served as the head coach of the UNC-Charlotte women's basketball program for 13 years and left as the winningest coach in school history with 175 victories.

Establishing school records for wins in a season (24) and winning percentage (.793), Baldwin also mentored two All-Americans; Markita Aldridge (1992-93, 1995-96) and Jameka Jones (1999-00). Under his guidance, Tonya Phifer was selected for the All-Conference USA team.

Prior to his arrival at Charlotte, Baldwin, worked for three years as an assistant to 1988 Olympic coach Kay Yow at NC State. NC State went 52-35 while he was in Raleigh, winning the 1987 Atlantic Coast Conference title and making NCAA appearances in 1986 and 1987. During his three seasons with the Wolfpack, Baldwin was instrumental in recruiting and coaching current WNBA players Andrea Stinson, Sharon Manning and Rhonda Mapp.

Baldwin began his coaching career at Raleigh's Broughton High School. The Caps compiled an incredible 124-26 record during his six years and won state 4-A championships in 1983 and 1985. He was recognized for his efforts on no fewer than three occasions, earning Coach of the Year honors from the Raleigh Times and the Raleigh Sports Club. In 1986, he was tabbed North Carolina High School Coach of the Year by the Greensboro Record for his work at Broughton.

Baldwin graduated from North Carolina Central University with a degree in social studies in 1976. As an athlete, he was a four-year letterwinner on the offensive line in football.

Baldwin is married to the former Terri Hemphill. Married in 1994, they have a daughter, Shantia, 24, and a son, Stevon, 14.

St. Joseph's

Patrick Klein is entering his first year as an assistant coach on Jim Foster's staff -- though, he is no stranger to the program.

Klein, who served as an assistant coach at Illinois from 2007-09, served as a graduate assistant on Foster's staff from 2005-07 and again last season where he assisted in several areas including summer camps, community service and supervising the student managers. During his time at UI Klein played a large role in the development of Illinois post players in addition to scouting, scheduling, recruiting, summer camps and academic mentoring.

Klein helped the Fighting Illini to 49 wins and two post-season appearances in three seasons and played a big part in Jenna Smith's development into one of the top post players in the country. Klein also helped coordinate summer camps and had a hand in landing three talented recruiting classes.

During his first season in Champaign, Klein helped the Illini to a 20-win season, a postseason appearance in 2007-08 and helped Smith earn All-America honors as a sophomore. In November of 2008 Klein helped Jolette Law and her staff sign the No. 3 recruiting class in the country - the highest-ranked class in school history.

In 2008-09, Klein helped a young Illini squad play its best basketball at the end of the season as the team finished 6-5 in the final 11 games after starting 4-16. Then in 2009-10 the Illini had a 19-win season and earned a trip to the WNIT quarterfinals.

In addition to his contributions at Ohio State, Klein also gained experience working with USA Basketball in the summer of 2006. He served on the support staff for the U18 FIBA Trials, monitoring and supervising 30 athletes during the trials week and assisting with on-court practice. Then, in August of 2006, he was on Anne Donovan's support staff for the USA Senior Women World Championship Trials, serving as a practice player and assisting the staff with on-court and post-practice workouts.

Klein's success isn't solely devoted to basketball. He founded PB&J Consultants, a leadership consulting firm in Columbus, Ohio, in June of 2003 and remains the company's CEO. The business develops leadership workshops for high school student organizations that motivates students to excel in all areas of life.

A native of Belpre, Ohio, Klein attended Ohio State, earned a bachelor's degree in business management in 2005 and a master's degree from the Fisher College of Business in March 2011. He also worked one year as a student manager for the Buckeyes in 2004-05 before becoming a graduate assistant for the 2005-06 and 2006-07 seasons.

TANZANIA WILLIAMS

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS | 4TH SEASON | BOWLING GREEN

WILLIAMS' CAREER

2008-present: Ohio State Director of Basketball Operations
2007-08: Assistant to the Commissioner, Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference
2004-07: Virginia Director of Basketball Operations
2003-04: Assistant to the Director of Operations, Ohio State

Tanzania "Tangy" Williams was named Ohio State's director of operations in May 2008 and is now in her fourth season with the Buckeyes in 2011-12.

Williams came back to Columbus after serving as the assistant to the commissioner of the Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference in New Haven, Conn., joining the conference office staff in July of 2007. Williams handled numerous duties including the budget, scheduling, tournament organization and assisted with the Conference Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and CHAMPS/Life-Skills programs.

Prior to her stint at the CACC, Williams served as director of basketball operations at Virginia for three seasons where she oversaw the day-to-day operations of the program. Her duties included, but were not limited to, organizing travel plans, scheduling community service events, film exchange and the supervision of team managers. In addition, she scheduled community outreach programs, speaking engagements and interviews for the players and staff.

Williams spent the 2003-04 season serving as an assistant to the director of operations for the Buckeyes, working under Foster. OSU finished the season at 21-10 and advanced to the NCAA's second round. For the Buckeyes, Williams coordinated film exchange, broke down game film and created scouting videos.

In 2000, Williams received a M.B.A. from Clark Atlanta University before receiving her bachelor's degree in 1995 in fashion & marketing from Bowling Green State University. A four-year letterwinner from 1991-94, she helped the Falcon women's basketball team to two Mid-American Conference championships and two NCAA tournament appearances.

Prior to her time at Ohio State and Virginia, Williams spent almost five years in the business world at National Cash Register in Atlanta, and the Otis Elevator Company and the Doneger Group in New York. She also has been working for Kaplan Test Prep and Admissions in New Haven, Conn., since August 2007.

A Dayton, Ohio, native, Williams comes from a family of basketball players and is a member of the Chaminade-Julienne High School Athletic Hall of Fame. Her brother, Mike, played basketball at Miami University. Her sister, Tiffany, played at North Carolina A&T in addition to her other sister, Tamika, a former player at Connecticut, former assistant coach at Ohio State and a current member of the WNBA's Connecticut Sun.

CANDACE DARK

VIDEO COORDINATOR | 1ST SEASON | THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

Former Buckeye Candace Dark is entering her first year as Ohio State's video coordinator.

A four-year letterwinner at Ohio State from 2003-06, Dark rejoins the Buckeyes after spending two years as a graduate assistant manager on the University of Toledo women's basketball staff from 2007-09 where she was in charge of video exchange as well as assisting with promotional activities, fundraising, on-campus recruiting and coordinating the team's community outreach program. Since December 2009, she has served as an academic advisor in the School of Allied Medical Professions at OSU.

Prior to her stint at Toledo, Dark served as a student assistant coach at Ohio State in 2006-07 when the Buckeyes finished with a 28-4 overall record and captured their third consecutive Big Ten championship.

Dark graduated from Ohio State in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in exercise science before earning her master's degree in higher education and administration from Toledo in 2009. She appeared in 91 career games for the Buckeyes and was part of two Big Ten championships (2004-05, 2005-06), including the 2006 Big Ten Tournament title. The Buckeyes were 102-28 during her four years in Columbus. A three-time academic all-Big Ten honoree, Dark was a member of OSU's Dean List for all five years and was a four-time Ohio State scholar-athlete.

A native of Kingman, Ind., Dark is a 2002 graduate of Fountain Central High School. She finished her career with 1,875 points and was a four-time Crawfordsville Journal Review Player of the Year. As a senior, the two-year captain averaged 21.1 points per game and was named to the 2002 Indianapolis Star All-Star Team.

DAVE RICHARDSON • ASSOCIATE STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Dave Richardson came to Ohio State in 2005 after spending four years as an assistant strength trainer at the University of Miami (Fla.).

Prior to working with the men's basketball team at Miami, Richardson worked for six seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Louisiana at Monroe.

Before his stint at Louisiana-Monroe, Richardson served five years as head strength and conditioning coach at Nicholls State University. Two of the seasons at Nicholls State he served as the head track and field coach.

The Monroe, La., native also worked as the strength and conditioning coach for Central America's Davis Cup tennis team in 1991.

Richardson, who earned a bachelor's degree in health and human performance in 1989 and a master's degree in exercise science in 1990 from Louisiana-Monroe, has a strong background in power lifting. In 1984 he won the Alaska powerlifting state championship and was crowned the Louisiana state powerlifting champion in 1986 and 1987.

In 1985 and 1986 he was the ArkLaMiss champion and was listed among the Powerlifting USA Top 100. In addition, Richardson served five years in the Army and was a member of the All-Army powerlifting team.

In addition, Richardson also served as the head strength and conditioning coach for Central America's Davis Cup tennis team.

As an undergrad, Richardson was a student assistant on the ULM strength staff.

A native of Monroe, La., Richardson lives with his wife, Amanda, and his two children, Megan and David.

CHALISA FONZA • ATHLETIC TRAINER

Chalisa Fonza, touting over a decade of experience at both the professional and collegiate levels, is marking her 12th season as head trainer to the Ohio State women's basketball team.

A 1995 graduate of the Ohio State master's degree program, Fonza is no stranger to the high standard of treatment and care administered by the athletics training staff. She manages individualized treatment and conditioning programs for each player on a year-round basis.

Additionally, Fonza serves as the medical liaison between student-athletes and an all-inclusive sports medicine staff consisting of a team physician, internists, surgeons, dentists, ophthalmologists and a sports psychologist. She also provides classroom instruction.

Fonza spent the summer of 2005 with the Washington Mystics of the WNBA, serving as the team's head athletic trainer.

Prior to coming to Columbus, Fonza was an assistant trainer at Oklahoma State covering football, men's and women's basketball and golf. She also supervised the student-training staff.

Fonza enjoyed similar duties at Cleveland State in 1999 in addition to organizing trainers for the NCAA Volleyball and Wrestling Championships. Her career also includes a stint with the WNBA Cleveland Rockers during their inaugural season in 1997.

A native of Quincy, Ill., Fonza earned her bachelor's degree from Western Illinois in 1992. She is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association and an alumna of Phi Kappa Phi Fraternity.

DR. JIM BORCHERS • TEAM PHYSICIAN

Former Buckeye Jim Borchers is in his first season as a team physician with the women's basketball team. In addition to working with the women's basketball program, Borchers also provides medical treatment for student-athletes from football, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's lacrosse, men's and women's tennis, field hockey and softball.

A native of Bellbrook, Ohio, Borchers walked on with the Buckeyes and went earned four varsity awards as the regular long snapper between 1990 and 1993. He received the Ike Kelley Special Teams Player of the Year Award in 1992. A four-year Academic All-Big Ten honoree and a four-year OSU Scholar-Athlete, he graduated from Ohio State in 1993 with a degree in chemistry. He earned his M.D. from Northeastern Ohio Universities College of Medicine in 2000.

Borchers completed his residency in family medicine from Toledo Hospital in 2003 and his sports medicine fellowship from the Northwest Ohio Sports Medicine Institute in 2004.

Jim and his wife, Mary, have three children: Emily, William and Joseph.

ERIC BUCHANAN • EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Eric Buchanan, a native of Clintonville, Ohio, is entering his 16th year as an equipment manager at Ohio State and third with the basketball programs. His duties range from negotiating equipment purchases with various manufacturer representatives to handling game-day equipment related issues. Buchanan has been involved in the equipment industry since 1991, when he served as a volunteer equipment manager for the University of Cincinnati football team. He held that position until he graduated in 1994 with a bachelor of arts degree in sociology. He received a master of arts degree in athletic administration in 1995 from Ohio University, while serving as a graduate assistant equipment manager for OU's basketball, football and track programs. Prior to his appointment at Ohio State in 1996, Buchanan spent a year as an assistant equipment manager at the University of California at Berkeley and worked with the football, women's basketball, swimming and water polo teams. He also was a volunteer intern with the Oakland Raiders while at California.

Buchanan currently resides in Columbus.

ALLISON LOGAN • STUDENT-ATHLETE SUPPORT SERVICES

Allison Logan has been an Athletic Academic Counselor at Ohio State for eight years, six of those with the women's basketball team.

Her duties include, but are not limited to, working with student-athletes and staff on day-to-day academic concerns and the coordination of tutoring and mentoring for student-athletes.

A former cross country and track student-athlete at Ohio State, Logan received a bachelor of arts from Ohio State in 1994, a master's degree from American University in 1996 and is currently working on her PhD at Ohio State.

A native of Cincinnati, Ohio, Logan previously worked as the Coordinator of Student-Athlete Support Services at American University from 1999-2003 and an Athletic Academic Counselor at the University of South Alabama from 1998-1999.

PATTY MEEK • OFFICE ASSOCIATE

Patty Meek is marking her 13th year as a member of the Buckeye basketball staff. Meek's employment at the university began in 1987 at the Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute in Wooster and she moved to the Columbus campus in 1992.

Meek is an integral part of the Buckeye women's basketball program staff. Her responsibilities range from managing the office to aiding the staff with recruiting organization.

Meek and her husband, Randall, live in Powell, Ohio. They have one son, Jamie, who is married to Danielle, and a daughter, Amy, who is married to Todd. Amy and Todd have two children, Zachary and Emma.

OHIO STATE AND THE WNBA

Ohio State has built a solid connection with the WNBA. In October 2008 Katie Smith, a two-time All-American at Ohio State from 1993-96 and a student assistant coach for the Buckeyes in the 2003-04 and 2004-05 campaigns, led the Detroit Shock to their third WNBA title in six years and was named Finals MVP – this less than two months after winning her third gold medal at the Beijing Olympics. Smith averaged 20.6 points in the three-game sweep, including a playoff career-high 25 points in Game 1. She followed that up with 22 points in Game 2 and hit every clutch shot the Shock needed as the Silver Stars tried to mount a comeback. Smith now plays for the Seattle Storm.

Assistant coach Debbie Black adds another link to the WNBA. In 2005, she officially retired from professional basketball after an 18-year career, spanning international play and professional leagues in the United States. Black played for three teams in the WNBA - Utah, Miami and retired with the Connecticut Sun.

Additionally Nancy Darsch was an assistant coach for two seasons with the Lynx from 2004-06. Darsch coached at Ohio State from 1985-97 and led the Buckeyes to the 1993 Final Four. Darsch now is an assistant for Boston College.

Debbie Merrill, a third-team All-Big Ten selection in 2006, became the fourth Buckeye in the last four seasons to move on to the WNBA. She was selected in the second round of the WNBA draft by Connecticut. Caitly Matter, Ohio State's all-time leader in 3-point shooting, played her rookie season with the Charlotte Sting in 2005. In 2004, LaToya Turner signed with Phoenix and Courtney Coleman also was a second-round draft pick by Connecticut in 2003.

In April 2007, Jessica Davenport was selected No. 2 overall in the WNBA Draft by San Antonio. She was traded to New York, where she helped the Liberty reach the playoffs, losing to Smith's Shock. Brandie Hoskins also was drafted in the 2007, going in the third round to Seattle and Marschella Packer was selected in the 2008 draft by the Phoenix Mercury.

Jantel Lavender is the newest addition to the Buckeyes' WNBA contingent. Ohio State's all-time leading scorer and rebounder was chosen 5th overall in the 2011 Draft by the Los Angeles Sparks.

2010-11 SEASON IN REVIEW

WHAT THE BUCKEYES DID IN 2010-11

- The Buckeyes advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the second time in three years, falling to No. 1 seed Tennessee in the Dayton Regional, 85-75.
- Ohio State won a record-tying third consecutive Big Ten tournament championship.
- Senior Jantel Lavender became the first men's or women's player to win Big Ten player of the year four consecutive years and also earned WBCA All-America honors for the third year in a row.
- Junior Samantha Prahalis was named second (media) and third team (coaches) all-Big Ten.
- Sophomore Tayler Hill was named to Big Ten all-defensive team.
- Ashley Adams named to Big Ten all-freshman team.
- Lavender was chosen 5th overall by the Los Angeles Sparks in April's WNBA Draft.
- Ohio State recorded its ninth straight 20-win season under head coach Jim Foster, marking the 25th of Foster's career and 12th consecutive overall.
- Ohio State has 193 wins over the last seven seasons, tied for the 9th most among NCAA Division I teams in that span.
- Ohio State is just one of nine Division I schools to win at least 20 games in each of the last nine seasons.
- After going 8-8 combined in the months of December and January, the Buckeyes finished strong, going 6-1 in February and 5-1 in March and winning 11 of its last 12 overall.
- Ohio State went 20-3 when scoring 70+ points and 14-0 when scoring at least 80. They were 4-7 when scoring fewer than 70. Ohio State was 25-0 in 2009-10 when scoring 70 or more and 6-5 when scoring fewer.
- Defensively, OSU allowed just two teams to shoot 50 percent this season. The first was No. 1 UConn (.500) Dec. 19 at Madison Square Garden. The second was No. 23 Penn State Feb. 17 in an 89-67 Buckeye win. Ohio State also held No. 9 Michigan State, winners of 14 straight games coming in, to its second-lowest point total of the season while holding the Spartans to 29.0 percent shooting.
- Ohio State is 140-13 at home overall under Jim Foster and 113-9 since the start of 2004-05.

Big Ten co-player of the year Jantel Lavender became the only player from a major conference to win player of the year honors four consecutive years.

LAVENDER CHOSEN 5TH OVERALL IN WNBA DRAFT

Jantel Lavender was drafted fifth overall by the Los Angeles Sparks in the 2011 WNBA Draft April 11. Lavender joins Jessica Davenport as the only Buckeyes to be drafted in the first round.

The Cleveland, Ohio, native is the fifth Buckeye to be picked in the draft in the last six years and the sixth during head coach Jim Foster's tenure.

The only four-time Big Ten player of the year and a three-time WBCA All-American, Lavender was fifth in the NCAA with 22.8 points this season and led the Big Ten with 10.9 rebounds in leading the Buckeyes to their second Sweet 16 appearance in two years.

LAVENDER NAMED WBCA ALL-AMERICAN FOR THIRD STRAIGHT YEAR

Jantel Lavender was named to the 2011 NCAA Division I State Farm Coaches' All-America Basketball Team for the third straight season in April.

Lavender, who was named first team Associated Press and USBWA All-America earlier this week, is just the second Buckeye to win the honor three times as Jessica Davenport took home the honors in 2005, '06 and '07. Lavender's honor is the sixth All-America selection at Ohio State in the past seven years. Tracey Hall (1997, '98), Katie Smith (1993, '96) and Davenport are the only other Buckeyes to win the award multiple times.

The only four-time Big Ten player of the year, Lavender was fifth in the NCAA with 22.8 points this season and led the Big Ten with 10.9 rebounds in leading the Buckeyes to their second Sweet 16 appearance in two years.

Junior Samantha Prahalis finished third in the NCAA with 6.9 assists per game. She dished out 25 in three NCAA tournament games (8.3 per game).

LAVENDER SETS NCAA MARK

Jantel Lavender set an NCAA record by scoring in double figures in all 136 career games, breaking the old mark of 125 previously held by Mississippi State's LaToya Thomas from 1998-2002, doing so in all 125 career games.

FOSTER MAKES 25TH NCAA APPEARANCE, 12TH STRAIGHT OVERALL

Head coach Jim Foster made his 25th-consecutive trip to the NCAA tournament and his 25th overall in 2011. He has a record of 34-25 all-time. In Foster's nine seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes have earned No. 1 (2006), No. 2 (2005, 2010), No. 3 (2009), No. 4 (2003, 2007, 2011) and No. 6 (2004, 2008) seeds in the tournament. Ohio State has earned at least a second-round finish in seven of nine seasons under Foster, including trips to the Sweet 16 in 2005, 2009 and 2011.

PRAHALIS NAMED LIEBERMAN AWARD FINALIST

Samantha Prahalis was one of 11 finalists for the 12th Annual Nancy Lieberman Award. The award is a national project of the Rotary Club of Detroit honoring the nation's top collegiate point guard in Division I. The criteria for the award are the floor leadership, play-making and ball-handling skills that personified Hall of Famer, Nancy Lieberman during her career.

PRAHALIS BREAKS ASSIST RECORD

Lavender wasn't the only one rewriting the record books this season. Samantha Prahalis, who finished with 11 assists Feb. 17 against Penn State, became the school's all-time assists leader in that game (now at 707), passing Jamie Lewis who held the old record of 643. Prahalis is the fastest Buckeye to record 500 and 600 assists in a career and is only Buckeye to record at least 1,000 points and 700 assists in a career. In 2009-10, she set a Big Ten record with 289 assists in a season.

NOTING OSU'S THIRD CONSECUTIVE BIG TEN TOURNAMENT TITLE

- Ohio State became the second team in Big Ten history to win three-straight tournaments (Purdue: 1998-2000).
- Ohio State set a Big Ten Tournament championship game record with 84 points scored in the win over Penn State.
- Jim Foster improved to 4-1 in Big Ten tournament title games. He is the first coach in conference history to win four tournament titles.
- Lavender is the first three-time Most Outstanding Player award winner in tournament history.
- Samantha Prahalis set a Big Ten tournament championship game record with nine assists vs. Penn State.
- The Buckeyes' eight blocked shots against Penn State set a new championship game record. Their 19 assists tied the championship game record.
- Freshman Ashley Adams set the championship game record with five blocked shots.
- Senior Brittany Johnson matched her single-game scoring high with 23 points in the quarterfinal win over Iowa.
- Johnson's seven three-point baskets against Iowa were the second-most ever in a Big Ten Tournament.
- Jim Foster is the winningest active coach in Big Ten Tournament play with 18 victories. His .782 winning percentage (18-5) is tops among active coaches.
- The win over Iowa in the quarters gave Ohio State its ninth straight 20-win season.
- Ohio State played in the final for the seventh time in school history and the third-straight season overall.
- Senior Jantel Lavender set a Big Ten Tournament single-game scoring record with 37 points in the semifinal win over Michigan State.
- Since 1995, when the Big Ten postseason tournament was reinstated, the Buckeyes are 29-13 and have lost their first game of the tournament only once.
- The Buckeyes have reached the tournament championship game in six out of 10 years under Jim Foster.
- Foster is 8-1 all-time in the quarterfinal round, 6-3 in the semifinals and 4-1 in title games. Ohio State has an 14-2 mark overall since the 2006 tournament.
- Lavender has recorded a double-double in seven of her 10 career Big Ten tournament games.

LAVENDER NAMED BIG TEN PLAYER OF THE YEAR FOR A RECORD FOURTH TIME

Ohio State senior center Jantel Lavender was named the Big Ten Co-Player of the Year Feb. 28 by a panel of media voters, becoming the first women's or men's basketball player in conference history to earn the award four times. Lavender also is the only women's basketball player among the Big Ten, ACC, Big East, Big 12, Pac-10 or SEC to accomplish the feat. She shares player of the year honors with Michigan State's Kalisha Keane, who was voted top player by the conference coaches.

Junior Samantha Prahalis was named second team all-Big Ten by the media and third team by the coaches. Sophomore Tayler Hill was named to the all-defensive team by the coaches and was an honorable mention all-Big Ten pick by both the coaches and the media. Freshman center Ashley Adams was named to the all-freshman squad.

Lavender, a unanimous first team all-Big Ten selection by the coaches and media, led the Big Ten in scoring (22.6 ppg), rebounding (10.7 rpg) and field goal percentage (.532) during the regular season en route to her fourth player of the year award. She also ranked in the top 10 in free throw percentage at 80.6 percent (125 of 155) and was fifth in the league with 51 blocked shots.

Lavender became the first Big Ten freshman to win POY honors (coaches) in 2008 when she shared the award with Wisconsin's Jolene Anderson (media). Lavender won the award outright the previous two seasons. Ohio State has now had a player win POY honors in each of the past seven years after Jessica Davenport won the honor in 2005, '06, and '07.

Prahalis, who became Ohio State's all-time assists leader as a junior, led the Big Ten and ranked third in the NCAA with 6.9 assists per game in the regular season, while ranking 12th in the Big Ten with 14.1 points per game. She finished out the season strong, averaging 8.0 assists per game in the month of February as Ohio State closed out the regular season on a six-game win streak. Prahalis notched the first triple double at Ohio State since the 2006-07 season when she recorded 13 points, 10 assists and 10 rebounds against Northwestern Feb. 6.

Hill turned in solid all-around numbers for the Buckeyes in 2010-11, averaging 12.7 points, 4.6 rebounds, 3.4 assists and 1.6 steals. She went to the free throw line a team-high 172 times this season, shooting just under 80 percent from the stripe. Hill flourished down the stretch for the Buckeyes, averaging 14 points and four assists while recording back-to-back 19-point games in wins at Minnesota and vs. No. 23 Penn State.

Adams was slowed by a knee injury in the preseason, but came on strong starting in the middle of January with a breakout game in a win at Illinois. She led the Big Ten in field goal percentage in conference play at .719 percent (46-of-64) and shot 17-of-20 from the floor in her last five games. Over her final 11 games Adams recorded 104 points (9.4 ppg), 67 rebounds (6.1), 19 assists and 32 blocked shots (2.9), including seven in the road win at Purdue.

Sophomore Tayler Hill was named to the Big Ten's all-defensive team and was honorable mention all-Big Ten by both the coaches and the media.

LAVENDER SETS BIG TEN PLAYER OF THE WEEK RECORD

Jantel Lavender extended her conference-record total of Big Ten Player of the Week honors to 19 earlier this season. In a victory over No. 23/25 Penn State, she posted a double-double with 23 points and 11 boards. At Purdue, the senior again totaled 23 points, this time hauling in nine rebounds to finish the week averaging 23.0 points and 10 boards.

NOTING THE BUCKEYES #42 JANTEL LAVENDER

- Lavender scored in double figures in all 136 career games, an NCAA record for most consecutive double-figure scoring games. The previous record was held by Mississippi State's LaToya Thomas from 1998-2002, doing so in all 125 career games.
- With 29 points at Minnesota Feb. 13, Lavender became Ohio State's all-time scoring leader (2,818), breaking Katie Smith's previous record of 2,578. Lavender is just the second player in Big Ten history to eclipse 2,800 points and finished 101 points shy of tying Kelly Mazzante's Big Ten record of 2,919 points set from 2001-04 while at Penn State.
- Lavender also broke Katie Smith's school record of 124 consecutive starts with her 136 career starts.
- Lavender finished the season tied for fifth in the NCAA in scoring at 22.8 ppg and 15th overall with 10.9 rebounds.

- Jantel also became the Big Ten's all-time leading rebounder, finishing her career with 1,422. She broke the 26-year-old record of 1,273 previously held by Indiana's Denise Jackson.

- Lavender became the first three-time winner of the Big Ten tournament's most outstanding player award. She scored a tournament single-game record with 37 points in the win over No. 1 seed Michigan State.

- Lavender recorded 22 points and 22 rebounds in the win over Indiana Jan. 5. Her 22 boards set a Value City Arena record and were the most by a Buckeye since Martha Baker grabbed 22 in a game back in 1976.

- Lavender finished the season with 20 double-doubles and recording a total of 77 in her career. The Buckeyes went 61-16 overall when Lavender recorded a double-double.

#21 SAMANTHA PRAHALIS

- Prahalis became the Ohio State's all-time assists leader this season (707), passing Jamie Lewis (643). Prahalis is the fastest Buckeye to record 500 and 600 assists in a career and is only the Buckeye to record at least 1,000 points and 700 assists in a career.
- Prahalis set a Big Ten tournament championship game record with nine assists in the win over Penn State March 6. She scored 23 points on 9-of-16 from the floor in that game and held PSU's top scorer, Maggie Lucas, to 1-of-10 from the field and 0-of-6 from three.

- Prahalis notched her first career triple-double with 13 points, 10 assists and 10 rebounds against Northwestern Feb. 6. It marked the first triple-double since Jessica Davenport in 2007.
- Prahalis finished second on the team with 14.5 ppg and led the Big Ten with 6.9 assists per game -- good for third best in the NCAA.
- Prahalis is averaged 8.0 assists in the month of February with 56 helpers in seven outings.
- Prahalis had 18 games with seven or more assists with OSU going 15-3 in those games.
- Prahalis scored a season-high 25 points against Michigan Jan. 27 when she tied a career high with five made three-point field goals.
- Prahalis scored 23 points in the win over Indiana Jan. 5, hitting three 3FG's. Against No. 18 Iowa, she recorded 10 points and 8 assists while holding Iowa's top scorer, Jamie Printy, to just 2-of-8 from the field and 1-of-5 from three. She also held Penn State's top scorer, Maggie Lucas, to just eight points on 3-of-10 shooting.

#4 TAYLER HILL

- Hill, a member of the Big Ten's all-defensive team and honorable mention all-Big Ten, tied a career high with 19 points in the win at Minnesota while dishing out a career-high seven assists and hitting her final eight free throws to help Ohio State secure the road win. She then scored 19 again in the win over No. 23 Penn State.
- Hill recorded her first career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds at Illinois, despite going 0-of-10 from the field.
- Hill has went to the free throw line a team-high 201 times, shooting 77.6 percent overall.
- Hill started the first three games of the season at point guard for the Buckeyes, playing all 120 minutes, scoring 44 points, grabbing 16 rebounds, dishing out 10 assists and recording seven steals.
- Hill converted the go-ahead basket at LSU with a driving layup in the final minute to give Ohio State the 59-55 victory.

#40 BRITTANY JOHNSON

- Johnson became the 29th player in program history to record 1,000 points in the first round win over UCF. She finished her career with 1,035 points.
- Johnson was the team leader with 85 3FGs, hitting four and scoring 16 points in her final game as a Buckeye against #1 seed Tennessee.

- Johnson hit seven 3FGs in the Big Ten tournament quarterfinal win over Iowa -- the second-most ever in a Big Ten tournament game. She scored 23 points in that game, tying her career high.

- Johnson hit five second-half 3FGs in the win at Purdue, including the game winner with 0.7 seconds remaining.

- Johnson finished her career ranked fourth on Ohio State's all-time list with 216 3FGs.
- Johnson scored 22 points on a career-high tying seven 3FGs in the win at Illinois Jan. 20.

#33 ASHLEY ADAMS

- Adams, a member of the Big Ten's all-freshman team, led the Big Ten in field goal percentage in conference play at .719 percent (46-of-64). She is 26-of-34 from the floor in her last eight games.
- Adams scored 10 points, grabbed five rebounds and tied an Ohio State tournament record with five blocked shots in the second round win over Georgia Tech March 21.

- Over the final 11 games of the regular season, Adams recorded 104 points (9.4), 67 rebounds (6.1), 19 assists and 32 blocks (2.9), including seven in the win at Purdue.

- Adams scored a season-high 18 points on 9-of-13 shooting against Northwestern Feb. 6 and then recorded her first career double-double with 13 points, 10 rebounds and six blocks at Minnesota to help her win Big Ten freshman of the week honors for the second time this season.

- Adams came out of nowhere off the bench in the win over Illinois Jan. 20 to record 13 points, nine boards, four assists, five blocks and three steals. That game earned her first career start the next game against No. 18 Iowa where she scored 16 points while grabbing seven rebounds. She then won Big Ten freshman of the week honors for her efforts.
- Adams recorded a season-high seven blocked shots in the road win at Purdue to help Ohio State come back from an 11-point deficit.

MORE MILESTONES FOR FOSTER

This season Ohio State recorded its ninth consecutive 20-win season, marking the 25th of Coach Foster's career, his 12th consecutive overall and his ninth in Columbus, the most of any coach at Ohio State. Foster has done it each year at Ohio State since his first season in 2002-03, including two 30-win seasons (2004-05, 2009-10).

Foster, who coached his 1000th career game Dec. 5, 2010 in the win over Oklahoma, won his 700th game Dec. 31, 2009 with an 86-60 win at Northwestern.

He is just the second collegiate coach -- men's or women's at any level -- to win at least 200 games at three different schools (C. Vivian Stringer is the other). Foster spent 13 seasons at St. Joseph's (248-126) and 11 at Vanderbilt (256-99) before coaching at Ohio State.

OSU TOUGH AT HOME UNDER FOSTER

Since the start of the 2004-05 season, Ohio State has amassed a remarkable 113-9 record at home and a 98-8 record at Value City Arena (13-1 at St. John Arena, 2-0 at Nationwide Arena). The Buckeyes have posted two perfect home records under head coach Jim Foster, going 14-0 in his first year in 2002-03 and 17-0 in 2004-05.

GAME 1

Nov. 12, 2010 • Philadelphia, Pa.
#7 Ohio State 84, Temple 75

Jantel Lavender had a career-high 37 points and 12 rebounds to lead No. 7 Ohio State to an 84-75 win over the Owls. Lavender hit 16 of her 22 shots as the Owls couldn't stop the preseason All-America. The Buckeyes were missing starting point guard Samantha Prahalis, suspended for three games by the school for a secondary NCAA rules violation Qwedra Wallace had a career-high 32 points to lead Temple, which hit 12-of-23 3-pointers. The score was tied at 60 with 8:36 left before Ohio State used a 15-4 spurt to take control. Lavender got it started with a lay-in and Brittany Johnson capped it with a 3-pointer with 3:30 left that put the game away. Tayler Hill and Johnson had 16 points each. Alison Jackson added 11. The Buckeyes led by five at halftime and Temple rallied behind its 3-point shooting to tie the game at 60 on BJ Williams' free throws. The Owls never had a chance to take the lead as Lavender quickly answered. Ohio State, which has won its last 16 season openers, is coming off one of the best seasons in program history. The Buckeyes won a school-record 31 games last season before falling to Mississippi State in the second round of the NCAA tournament. They also won their sixth straight Big Ten title. Without Prahalis, the Buckeyes got off to a slow start -- trailing 5-0. Ohio State quickly recovered, scoring 13 of the next 15 points to take a 13-7 advantage on Sarah Schulze's layup. After Victoria Macaulay's putback made it a four-point game, Jackson had a three-point play and Johnson hit a 3-pointer to make it a 10-point lead. A Lavender layup made it 25-14. The Owls responded with back-to-back 3-pointers by Satoria Bell and Natasha Thames to cut their deficit to five. Another layup by Lavender restored the advantage to 31-22 before Temple went on a 10-2 run to close within 33-32 on Bell's floater.

GAME 2

Nov. 14, 2010 • Columbus, Ohio
#7 Ohio State 74, Eastern Michigan 62

The No. 7 Buckeyes got 26 points from Jantel Lavender and three others in double figures on Sunday, allowing them to pull away from pesky Eastern Michigan for a 74-62 win. On Sunday, the Buckeyes opened a 13-point lead in the first half, saw the Eagles tie the score at 28 on the first basket of the second half and led by only five with 9 minutes left. The Buckeyes made 18 of 30 from the floor and eight of nine free throws in the second half while hitting 53 percent of their field goals (53.7 percent) for the game. Lavender had 15 points in the second half, when Sarah Schulze had all 11 of her points. Tayler Hill, who took over as point guard for Prahalis, had 13 points and Brittany Johnson also added 11. The Eagles (1-1) made only three of their first 21 shots and went 5 minutes without a basket as the Buckeyes increased a four-point advantage to 22-9. The skid ended when De'Ja Wills came off the bench to hit a jumper with 7:09 left. Tavelyn James had 12 of her 18 points for the Eagles in the second half, and Wills had 11 off the bench. Ohio State's reserves contributed 28 minutes from four players and got six points by freshman Martina Ellerbe.

GAME 3

Nov. 17, 2010 • Baton Rouge, La.
#7 Ohio State 59, LSU 55

Taylor Hill scored 15 points, including a basket that broke a tie in the final minute, and the No. 7 Buckeyes defeated LSU, 59-55, at the Maravich Center in Baton Rouge. With the score tied at 53, Hill made a short shot to give the Buckeyes the lead with 37 seconds remaining. On the Lady Tigers' next possession, LaSondra Barrett missed the front end of a one-and-one and Ohio State came away with rebound. Two free throws by both Brittany Johnson and Hill in the last 25 seconds clinched the victory for the Buckeyes (3-0). Taylor Turnbow made a layup at the buzzer for LSU (0-2). Jantel Lavender scored 17 points and grabbed 13 rebounds to lead Ohio State. Adrienne Webb scored 16 points and Latear Eason added 12 for LSU. The Lady Tigers, who trailed for nearly the entire game, tied the score at 50 on a basket by Webb with 2:24 left. Webb scored five straight points after Ohio State went ahead 50-45. The Buckeyes took a three-point lead on an unconventional three-point play. When it appeared to LSU that Ohio State was going to call a timeout, the LSU players began to go to their bench, but the ball was still live and Alison Jackson made an uncontested layup. Moreover, Barrett came on to the court as a substitute. The Lady Tigers were whistled for a technical foul for having six players on the floor. Hill made one of two foul shots. After the Buckeyes took the three-point lead on the unusual three-point play, LSU failed to score on two straight possessions. But, Webb knocked down a 3-pointer to tie the score at 53 with 51 seconds remaining.

GAME 4

Nov. 22, 2010 • Columbus, Ohio
#7 Ohio State 80, East Tennessee State 47

The Buckeyes were off and running to an 80-47 victory against East Tennessee State. In her first game back, junior Samantha Prahals had 18 points and eight assists in 31 minutes. Prahals had her first basket 2 1/2 minutes into the game but her flair showed moments later when she dished the ball to the left corner. As Brittany Johnson unleashed a 3-pointer, Prahals backpedaled toward the center circle with three right fingers in the air before the ball swished the net. Despite Prahals' energy, the Buckeyes trailed 20-19 with 7 minutes left in the first half before scoring the final 17 points leading into the break. "We acted like a veteran team," Foster said. "This is the fourth straight team we've played that won 20-plus games last year." Prahals helped the cause with a no-look layup from the left side as she was fouled. She made the free throw for a 32-20 lead but Tayler Hill was the catalyst during the streak with eight points. Hill, who played all 120 minutes in the first three games in Prahals' absence, finished with 18 points. Natalie Pickwell had 16 points for the Lady Buccaneers (2-2) but cold shooting doomed ETSU late in the opening half. They missed their final 11 shots from the floor, two free throws and committed seven turnovers as OSU took a 16-point lead.

GAME 5

Nov. 28, 2010 • Columbus, Ohio
#6 Ohio State 88, UNC Wilmington 69

Jantel Lavender scored 17 of her 25 points after halftime and Samantha Prahalis had 21 points and 11 assists, leading No. 7 Ohio State to an 88-69 win over UNC Wilmington. Lavender outscored the Seahawks 9-0 on her own to balloon a seven point lead to 16 with just under five minutes to play. "We started running the floor really well," Lavender said. "We started reversing the ball and making the extra pass." Prahalis scored the first seven points of the second half after having just five in the first as the Buckeyes built on a 32-27 advantage. Lavender also had 11 rebounds and the Buckeyes (5-0) eventually wore down the Seahawks (4-1). Brittany Johnson added 17 points and Sarah Schulze a career-high 14 rebounds for the Buckeyes, who play Virginia on Thursday before a high-profile matchup against No. 11 Oklahoma next weekend. Kristen Hanzer had 14 points for the Seahawks (4-1). Lavender became Ohio State's career leader in field goals with 879, breaking the mark set by Jessica Davenport from 2004-07. "Jantel hit the ground running as a freshman. She hasn't stopped running yet," Ohio State coach Jim Foster said. "If you win a lot of games you've got to have good players and records are going to fall. Jantel is setting a standard that's tough to beat. We're talking November and she's already broken a four-year record."

GAME 6

Dec. 2, 2010 • Columbus, Ohio
#6 Ohio State 74, Virginia 46

Jantel Lavender had 23 points and 13 rebounds, Samantha Prahalis added 14 points and eight assists and No. 6 Ohio State beat Virginia 74-46 in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge. Lavender was 7-for-8 from the floor in the first half and finished 10-for-15. She also became the Buckeyes' career rebounding leader with 1,121. Ohio State jumped out to a 21-7 lead in the first eight minutes before the Cavaliers whittled the deficit to 25-22 on a consecutive 3-pointers by Lexie Gordon with 4:53 left in the half. With the score 28-24, the Buckeyes went on a 12-2 run to go into halftime with a 40-26 lead. "When it got cut to four, I thought we got a little tired," Ryan said. "We weren't able to sustain anything in the first half and it ended up ballooning in the last two minutes to 14. It's really tough to come in down 14 to a top 10 team." Ohio State dominated inside in the first half, with a 28-8 advantage in the paint. Simone Egwu had 11 points and Gordon 10 for the Cavaliers, who played their fourth straight ranked opponent. They host Drexel on Saturday. The closest Virginia got in the second half was 48-36 with 12 minutes left. Ohio State increased the lead to 18 in the next three minutes. The Cavaliers committed 16 of their 21 fouls in the second half, when the Buckeyes went 13-for-18 from the line. Lavender was happy that Ohio State beat an ACC team for the first time in four tries in the interconference series.

GAME 7

Dec. 5, 2010 • Columbus, Ohio
#6 Ohio State 95, Oklahoma 84

Jantel Lavender scored 32 points, Samantha Prahalis had 15 points and a career-high 15 assists and the sixth-ranked Buckeyes beat No. 11 Oklahoma 95-84 in the Big Ten/Big 12 Challenge. Brittany Johnson added 18 points, Tayler Hill finished with 16 and Sarah Schulze 12 for the Buckeyes (7-0), who pulled away after the game was tied with just under 11 minutes left. OU freshman Aaryn Ellenberg, who had a career-best 34 points for Oklahoma in her seventh game, tied it for the final time at 62-all on a jumper from the right wing at the 11:44 mark. Seconds later, she picked up her fourth foul and went to the sideline. An instant after Ellenberg left the game, Prahalis hit a pullup 15-footer. After Lavender hit a 12-foot turnaround, Joanna McFarland streaked by Lavender for a layup. At the other end, Lavender hit a bank shot and was fouled by McFarland, completing the three-point play. An Oklahoma turnover was followed by the biggest shot of the game. With the shot clock about to expire, Lavender let fly with another tough 15-footer with a defender in her face that hit nothing but net and gave Ohio State a 71-64 lead. The Sooners pulled within four with 5:42 left on a three-point play by All-American Danielle Robinson, who hit her average with 19 points, but Johnson made a 3 from the wing to spark an 8-0 run that put the game out of reach. Carlee Roethlisberger had 18 for the Sooners, who stayed in the game by hitting six of 11 shots behind the arc in the second half. Prahalis had one more than her previous career high in assists. It was Foster's 1,000th game as a head coach. He improved to 723-277 in 32 seasons at St. Joseph's, Vanderbilt and Ohio State.

GAME 8

Dec. 11, 2010 • Syracuse, N.Y.
Syracuse 75, #6 Ohio State 66

Ohio State dropped its first game of the season in a 75-66 loss to Syracuse in the Carrier Dome Saturday afternoon. Jantel Lavender scored a team-high 26 points for the Buckeyes, but Syracuse's Erica Morrow scored a game-high 27 and hit four 3-point FGs to lead the Orange. Morrow was a thorn in the Buckeyes' side all afternoon, hitting 10-of-18 overall while dishing out four assists and grabbing five rebounds. Syracuse out-rebounded the Buckeyes, 43-33, including 14 on the offensive glass. With Syracuse leading 50-42 with 12:35 left, Ohio State went on a 14-6 run to tie the game at 56-56 on a three-pointer by Brittany Johnson at the 8:34 mark. The Orange would then lead 66-64 with the ball and 2:45 remaining. Lasia Hemingway came up with a big offensive rebound on a missed three-point attempt by Carmen Tyson-Thomas and Tasha Harris answered with a three from the corner to put the Orange up 69-64 with 2:20 left. Ohio State then missed its final three shots of the game as Syracuse made its free throws to put the game away in the final minutes. Syracuse's zone defense forced Ohio State into 30 three-point attempts, converting on just eight for a 26.7 shooting percentage. The Buckeyes shot 38.7 percent overall for the game while SU shot 43.3. In the first half, the Buckeyes opened with a 24-14 lead with 7:27 left, but the Orange went on a 21-4 run to end the half, capped off by a three-pointer from Morrow with 6 seconds left to give SU a 35-28 lead. Samantha Prahalis scored 17 points and dished out eight assists for the Buckeyes while Brittany Johnson added 13.

GAME 9

Dec. 14, 2010 • Columbus, Ohio
#10 Ohio State 87, USC-Upstate 55

Jantel Lavender scored 33 points to lead Ohio State (No. 10 ESPN/USA Today, No. 11 AP) to an 87-55 victory over South Carolina Upstate on Tuesday night, the Buckeyes' last game before meeting No. 1 Connecticut. Ohio State (8-1) rebounded from its first defeat three days earlier at No. 24 Syracuse by going inside to Lavender early and often as she recorded her 63rd career double-double with 15 rebounds in just 26 minutes -- leaving the game with just under 9 minutes left. Lavender had 21 first-half points, one shy of her career best in a half. The Buckeyes led 26-17 when the All-American took her first breather with 7 minutes left in the first half. She had as many points as the Spartans (3-4) at that point. Senior Sarah Schulze had 11 points and nine rebounds while Tayler Hill added 13 points and Samantha Prahalis eight assists. Overall, 11 of the 12 Buckeyes that played scored. The Buckeyes dominated the Spartans on the glass, outrebounding them 58-35, including 17-8 on the offensive end. Reserve Kim Roach had 15 points for the Spartans. In regular-season games, Ohio State is now 20-2 after a loss since the 2004-05 season and 28-6 overall in nine seasons under Jim Foster.

GAME 10

Dec. 19, 2010 • New York, N.Y.
#1 Connecticut 81, #10 Ohio State 50

The 10th-ranked Buckeyes fell victim to the nation's No. 1 team, losing 81-50 to Connecticut in the Maggie Dixon Classic at Madison Square Garden. Jantel Lavender and Tayler Hill scored 14 points to lead the Buckeyes, but could not contain the UConn duo of Tiffany Hayes and three-time All-American Maya Moore, who scored 26 and 22, respectively. The loss dropped the Buckeyes to 8-2 on the season, while the Huskies improved to 10-0 following the first meeting between the two teams. The win by Connecticut was its 88th consecutive victory, which ties the record set by the John Wooden-coached UCLA Bruins from 1971-74. Brittany Johnson brought the large Buckeye contingent to its feet in the first 1:34, draining back-to-back triples to give Ohio State the early 6-0 lead. However, the Huskies answered with a 13-0 run over the next 4:53. UConn would extend its lead to 12 before Hill cut it to eight (29-21) with 5:29 remaining in the half with an old-fashioned 3-point play. From that point, Ohio State scored just five more points and Connecticut ended the half with a 40-26 lead. The second half was all UConn as the Buckeyes struggled from the field, shooting 25.0 percent in the final 20 minutes, including 0-of-5 from three. UConn shot 56.3 percent in the final stanza and 50 percent overall for the game. It was the fifth annual Maggie Dixon Classic honoring the former Army women's basketball coach, who died on April 6, 2006, of arrhythmia, likely caused by an enlarged heart. The 15,232 in attendance was a record-crowd for a women's game at Madison Square Garden.

GAME 11

Dec. 28, 2010 • Columbus, Ohio
Duquesne 71, Ohio State 67

No. 13/12 Ohio State dropped its second consecutive game Tuesday night, this time to the Duquesne Dukes in front of 3,967 fans at Value City Arena. Samantha Prahalis and Jantel Lavender led the Buckeyes with 22 and 21 points, respectively, but could not hold on to an eight-point lead with 5:33 left as Duquesne went on a 16-4 run to end the game. The Buckeyes fought back from a nine-point DU lead, but made just one of their last 10 field goals over the final 11:25. Down by one with 1:08 left, Ohio State had a chance to go ahead when Brittany Johnson came up with a steal, but Prahalis was unable to convert on a contested layup at the other end and Duquesne's Kelly Britcher sank a three-pointer from the corner with :09 seconds to ice it.

NOTES

- With her layup at the 11:57 mark of the first half, Jantel Lavender moved into second place on the Ohio State career scoring list, passing Jessica Davenport (2,303). Lavender now has 2,318.
- Ohio State fell to 5-1 all-time against Duquesne and 32-6 against current teams from the Atlantic 10 Conference. The Buckeyes opened the 2010-11 campaign with a win at Atlantic 10 member Temple Nov. 12.
- The loss was just the third for Ohio State in its last 118 games at home against unranked opponents.
- The game marked the first time Ohio State has lost this season when outshooting the opponent at the free throw line. Ohio State has made more free throws (181) than opponents have attempted (133) this season. Ohio State is 8-1 this year and 77-6 over the last three-plus years when they make more than their opponents at the line.
- Sophomore Amber Stokes made her first career start.

GAME 12

Dec. 30, 2010 • Ann Arbor, Mich.
Michigan 64, #12 Ohio State 51

Veronica Hicks had 17 points and eight rebounds, and Michigan upset No. 13 Ohio State 64-51 in its Big Ten opener. The Wolverines (8-5, 1-0 Big Ten) snapped a 14-game losing streak to Ohio State, beating them for the first time since 2001. Ohio State (8-4, 0-1) has lost three straight. Jantel Lavender had 18 points and 18 rebounds for Ohio State, but point guard Samantha Prahalis missed 12 of her 13 field-goal attempts. Sophomore Tayler Hill continued her solid play with 15 points, six assists, six rebounds and three steals. Michigan jumped out to a quick 24-4 lead as Ohio State missed 11 of its first 13 shots. The Buckeyes, who lost to Duquesne on Tuesday night, made it 28-20 late in the half, but the Wolverines scored the final six points. Michigan, which never trailed, outshot Ohio State 46 percent to 23 percent in the half. Ohio State continued to struggle in the second half, and their frustration showed when Prahalis was called for an intentional foul after taking Jenny Ryan down by the head. Amber Stokes and Courtney Boylan picked up a double technical for a minor confrontation late in the half. Ryan, though, picked up her fourth foul with 11:51 to go, and fellow starter Nya Jordan limped off with what appeared to be a right knee injury less than a minute later. Jordan did not return, but joined her teammates for a midcourt celebration after the final buzzer. Ohio State failed to take advantage, however, struggling to keep its shooting percentage above 25 percent, and Boylan's 3-pointer gave the Wolverines a 48-34 lead with eight minutes left.

GAME 13

Jan. 2, 2011 • Columbus, Ohio
#12 Ohio State 86, Bethune Cookman 38

Jantel Lavender scored 29 points, making 12 of 13 field goals and all five free throws in only 21 minutes of the Buckeyes 86-38 win over Bethune Cookman Sunday. Lavender had Ohio State's first 11 points and 21 in the first half despite playing only 12 minutes for 46-25 lead at the break. Her only miss was a layup in the first four minutes and she made her final eight shots from the floor. Lavender took her first break at the 10:44 mark having already scored 15 points. She returned 6 minutes later and scored six points of Ohio State's next eight for a 40-23 advantage before leaving for the half with 2:05 to play. Seven of Lavender's baskets came off feeds from Samantha Prahalis and none was prettier than the no-look, behind-the-head pass off a spin move to put Ohio State up 54-27 early in the second half. Prahalis recorded her third double-double of the season and 12th of her career with 10 points and 10 assists. Prahalis has recorded eight or more assists in all but two games now this season. Redshirt-freshman Brianna Sanders scored a career-high seven points and every Buckeye cleared to play saw action Sunday with starters Samantha Prahalis and Tayler Hill leading the way with 30 and 27 minutes, respectively.

GAME 14

Jan. 5, 2011 • Columbus, Ohio
#20 Ohio State 83, Indiana 65

Samantha Prahalis broke out of a shooting slump with 23 points and Jantel Lavender had a career-high 22 rebounds to go with 22 points to lead the Buckeyes to an 83-65 win over Indiana on Wednesday night. Prahalis made 9 of her 14 shots after missing 17 of her previous 21 over the last two games, invigorating the offense. Lavender did the dirty work inside, grabbing almost ever rebound, blocking shots and having her way. Her rebound total matched the third most in Ohio State history. Tayler Hill added 12 points and Amber Stokes 10 for the Buckeyes. Jori Davis had 21 points and Whitney Lindsay 20 for Indiana. Indiana cut into a 13-point halftime deficit with an 8-2 run to start the second half. But Prahalis hit the next basket and added a 3-pointer to end a 13-6 spurt to put the Buckeyes ahead 46-33. The Buckeyes got a charge out of Stokes, forced turnovers and was aggressive to the hoop, helping the Buckeyes pull away in just 15 minutes on the court. Both teams were sleepwalking through the early part of the game; with 8 minutes left in the half they were each 5 for 17 from the field and 0 for 5 behind the arc. The rest of the half, however, the Buckeyes hit 8 of 14 shots from the field to take the lead for good. They broke away from a 16-15 lead with 6 minutes left in the half with a 16-4 run. Six players scored in the spurt, with Prahalis and Hill each scoring four points.

GAME 15

Jan. 8, 2011 • Iowa City, Iowa
No. 21 Iowa 89, No. 20 Ohio State 76

Jaime Printy scored 25 points, Kamille Wahlin added 18 and No. 20 Iowa beat No. 21 Ohio State 89-76. Kachine Alexander had 16 points and 13 rebounds for the Hawkeyes, who snapped a three-game losing streak to the Buckeyes with a late 10-2 run after Ohio State had closed to 77-72 with 4:08 left. Iowa shot nearly 50 percent from the floor after failing to crack 40 percent in its last four games. Ohio State's Samantha Prahalis had 22 points for the Buckeyes, who have dropped four of six. Star Jantel Lavender was held to 14 points while battling foul trouble in the second half, though she grabbed 17 rebounds and blocked four shots. This was the first meeting between the Hawkeyes and Buckeyes since Ohio State rallied from a 16-point deficit to stun Iowa 66-64 in last year's Big Ten title game. Lavender, who torched Iowa for 35 points in the Big Ten title game last March, picked up her third foul late in the first half as the Hawkeyes attacked the Buckeyes center. Iowa's Morgan Johnson beat Lavender with layups on back-to-back possessions -- the first off a perfect post feed from Alexander -- to put the Hawkeyes ahead 77-68 with 5:01 left. Ohio State quickly closed within five, but the Hawkeyes held the Buckeyes to just one field goal for next 3½ minutes. Ohio State finished just 4 for 22 from 3-point range. After Printy made a 25-footer late in the first half to put the Hawkeyes ahead 45-40, Lavender picked up a charge the next time Ohio State touched the ball. That foul proved to be as tough to overcome as the five-point deficit, as Lavender scored just six points in the second half. Prahalis pulled the Buckeyes back to 52-50, using a slick crossover dribble to create space and nailing a high-arching jumper despite being fouled. But Iowa responded with an 8-2 run to push its lead to 60-52 with 13:17 left. Printy then dashed by three defenders for an uncontested layup to make it 66-57.

GAME 16

Jan. 13, 2011 • Evanston, Ill.
Northwestern 64, No. 24 Ohio State 53

Ohio State's shooting woes continued Thursday night in Evanston in a 64-53 loss to Northwestern, giving the Wildcats their first victory over the Buckeyes since 1999. Jantel Lavender and Samantha Prahalis each scored 19, but Ohio State shot just 30.5 percent from the field overall, including several missed layups, and shot just 18.2 percent (4-of-22) from three. They also went 3-of-12 from the free throw line in a night where nothing seemed to fall for the Buckeyes. Northwestern appeared in command with a 53-33 lead after an Allison Mocchi shot off the glass with 8:17 to play, but Lavender answered with a layup seconds later and Ohio State was off on a 10-1 run. The Buckeyes would eventually cut the deficit to 58-51 on Prahalis' jumper with 61 seconds to play, but got no closer. Wildcats forward Kendall Hackney added 11 points while Jaeschke had a game-high 12 rebounds. Lavender, this week's Big Ten player of the week, and Sarah Schulze each had 10 rebounds. Ohio State jumped out to an 11-4 lead in the first 6 minutes, but cold shooting doomed the Buckeyes the rest of the half as Northwestern finished the half on a 19-5 run and led 23-16 at the half. Ohio State shot just 21.2 percent in the first 20 minutes, including 1-of-7 from behind the arc.

GAME 17

Jan. 16, 2011 • Columbus, Ohio

#24 Ohio State 67, No. 9 Michigan State 53

Jantel Lavender had 24 points and No. 24 Ohio State broke out of its rare slump to roll over the ninth-ranked Spartans, 67-53. "It was kind of like the bad spell was behind us," Lavender said. "But our team's so used to not losing that it was kind of hard to come out of that slump. We had to come together and be accountable for ourselves. ... We were all on the same page; we were more cohesive than we had been in past games." After weeks of shooting poorly, Ohio State faded near the end to shoot 43 percent from the field while the Spartans had their worst shooting game of the year, hitting just 29 percent - including making only 2 of 23 behind the arc. It was Ohio State's first victory over a top-10 opponent since beating No. 3 Oklahoma on Dec. 20, 2006. Down just 33-29 at the break, Michigan State missed its first nine shots of the second half. When Ohio State's Tayler Hill, who finished with 17 points, and Brittany Johnson hit 3-pointers, all of a sudden the lead was 39-29. The Spartans continued to misfire from all over the court. Their cause was further hurt when center Lykendrea Johnson picked up her fourth foul on a reach-in 30 feet from the basket with 13:41 left. The Buckeyes built the lead to 17 before cruising to the finish.

GAME 18

Jan. 20, 2011 • Champaign, Ill.

#25 Ohio State 71, Illinois 62

Brittany Johnson scored 22 points and Jantel Lavender added 19 and 12 boards to help No. 25 Ohio State beat Illinois 71-62. Johnson tied a career high with seven three-pointers while the Buckeyes also got a lift off the bench from freshman center Ashley Adams. The Siloam Springs, Ark., native played with confidence and poise, nearly recording a double-double with 13 points and nine rebounds. She also had five blocks, four assists and three steals. Sophomore Tayler Hill went 0-of-10 from the field, but stayed aggressive and wound up with 10 points and 10 rebounds. After a slow start, the Buckeyes (12-6, 3-3 Big Ten) built a 38-29 halftime lead behind 15 first-half points from Johnson, who hit 5-of-6 from behind the arc in the opening half. Karisma Penn added 26 points and 18 rebounds for the Illini (7-12, 2-4), who have now lost seven straight games to the Buckeyes. The Illini jumped out to an early 6-0 lead in the first 2:25. Lana Rukavina made two layups and Penn added a bucket of her own to put the Illini up early. Ohio State took its first lead of the game, 26-24, on a 3-pointer from Johnson with 4:03 to play, but Illinois' Blinn answered right back with a 3-pointer of her own, retaking the lead for the Illini. Adams then hit a layup to put the Buckeyes up by one. On the next trip down the court for the Buckeyes, Johnson nailed another 3-pointer to increase their lead to 31-27 with 2:54 to play in the half. Adams' jumper with five seconds remaining in the half put the Buckeyes up 38-29. Illinois dissolved Ohio State's lead midway through the second half on a three-point play from Lydia McCully, giving Illinois the lead, 50-49, with 9:30 to play. That lead wouldn't last long as Johnson sank yet another 3-pointer to put Ohio State back on top for good.

GAME 19

Jan. 24, 2011 • Columbus, Ohio
No. 24 Ohio State 81, No. 18 Iowa 67

Jantel Lavender hit double figures for the 121st consecutive game, scoring 22 points to lead No. 24 Ohio State to an 81-67 win over No. 18 Iowa. Almost as important as yet another good game for Lavender - she also had eight rebounds and six assists - was the play of fellow post player Ashley Adams. Virtually unseen for most of the year, the 6-foot-5 freshman has teamed with the 6-4 Lavender to give the Buckeyes a lethal high-low post game. Adams, who took over two games ago when senior starter Sarah Schulze went out with a knee injury, chipped in with 16 points, seven rebounds and three assists. The Buckeyes shot 72 percent from the field in the second half - including 14 of 17 (82 percent) on shots inside the arc - to turn a one-point deficit at the half into a comfortable win. Much of that is attributable to Adams and Lavender taking turns dumping lob passes into each other, or else flipping the ball out to wide-open teammates. Brittany Johnson added 15, Tayler Hill 13 and Samantha Prahalis 10 points to go with eight assists in Ohio State's third consecutive win. Johnson hit 5 of 9 shots - all 3-pointers - to burn the Hawkeyes when they doubled up down low on one of the posts. Kelly Krei had 15 points, Morgan Johnson 14, Kamille Wahlin 13 and Jaime Printy 12 for the Hawkeyes (15-5, 3-4), who haven't won in Columbus in 13 years. Kachine Alexander, who had nine points and 11 rebounds, said Ohio State's twin towers caused all kinds of havoc. Adams had just 17 points in Ohio State's first 17 games; she's had 29 in the last two.

GAME 20

Jan. 27, 2011 • Columbus, Ohio
Michigan 69, No. 24 Ohio State 66

Rachel Sheffer scored five of her 23 points down the stretch and Michigan rallied from a 14-point deficit to beat No. 24 Ohio State 69-66. With under 2 minutes to play, Sheffer made a basket and free throw to pull Michigan within 66-65. After Ohio State's Brittany Johnson missed a jumper, Sheffer made a pair of foul shots with 29.2 seconds left for the Wolverines' first lead since midway in first half. Samantha Prahalis, who led Ohio State (13-7, 4-4) with 25 points, missed a shot but teammate Alison Jackson was fouled going for the rebound with 3.4 seconds left. Jackson missed both free throws and Jenny Ryan was fouled by Prahalis. Ryan made both free throws and Johnson missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer after a timeout. Ohio State and Prahalis couldn't miss in the first half as the Buckeyes raced out to a 46-33 lead. Prahalis was a perfect 7-of-7 from the field and hit all five of her 3-pointers, including one at the buzzer that brought the VCA crowd to its feet at intermission. But Ohio State's offense stalled in the second half, scoring just 20 points and shooting 26.9 percent after shooting 57.7 in the first 20 minutes. Veronica Hicks added 14 points for the Wolverines. Johnson finished with 14 points and Jantel Lavender had 10 points for the Buckeyes. Lavender became the Big Ten's all-time leading rebounder, breaking the 26-year-old record previously held by Indiana's Denise Jackson.

GAME 21

Jan. 30, 2011 • University Park, Pa.
Penn State 80, #24 Ohio State 71

Jantel Lavender scored 26 points and Tayler Hill added 18, but Ohio State couldn't contain Penn State guards Alex Bentley and Maggie Lucas who combined for 39 points as the Nittany Lions pulled out the 80-71 win. Bentley had 21 points and seven assists while Lucas added 18 points, hitting six 3-pointers for the Nittany Lions. Penn State, which led the NCAA hitting 44 percent of its 3-pointers coming into the game, made 7 of 12. The Nittany Lions capitalized on defense, scoring 20 points off of 13 turnovers. Penn State also had eight steals on the afternoon. Penn State remained tough on defense in anticipation of the Buckeyes going on a big run to regain the lead, much like their late 17-4 run to overcome a 15-point deficit in the team's game last year. However, Ohio State trailed the whole game and was unable to put a large string of points together at any point. After trailing by six at the half, Ohio State cut the lead to three early in the second, but quickly found themselves down 13 with 13:51 left after Lucas hit one of her six threes on the afternoon. Ohio State would play hard and eventually cut the deficit to seven several times, but came no closer as Penn State grabbed 11 second-half rebounds and hit its free throws down the stretch. Despite having four players score in the double digits, Ohio State couldn't produce enough on defense to stop their opponent. Penn State committed 13 turnovers, a vast improvement from their 24 against Illinois in their previous game. Samantha Prahalis added 11 points and five assists for Ohio State while Brittany Johnson chipped in with nine, all on three-pointers. With her 26 points, Lavender topped 2,500 for her career.

GAME 22

Feb. 6, 2011 • Columbus, Ohio
Northwestern 74, Ohio State 68

Ohio State suffered its third straight defeat Feb. 6, dropping a 74-68 decision to Northwestern at Value City Arena. Ohio State led by eight, 52-44, with 13:05 left before a 19-2 by Northwestern over the next 10 minutes put the Wildcats in control, 63-54, with 3:50 left. The Wildcats went inside early and often to senior Amy Jaeschke, who scored 19 of her game-high 29 in the second half. The Buckeyes, who shot well at 50.9 percent, slowly chipped away at Northwestern's lead, but 10 second-half turnovers and the inability to get stops defensively ultimately let the Wildcats escape with the win. Jantel Lavender (16) and Ashley Adams (18) combined for 34 points and Samantha Prahalis notched her first career triple double with 13 points, 10 assists and 10 rebounds. Tayler Hill chipped in with 11, four assists and four steals. A seesaw first half saw six ties and 12 lead changes as Ohio State led 34-32 at the break. The Buckeyes shot 57.1 percent in the first 20 minutes, dominating the paint area as Adams (10) and Lavender (11) combined for 21 points on 10-of-15 shooting.

- Jantel Lavender made her 124th consecutive start, tying the school record set by Katie Smith.
- Samantha Prahalis recorded her first-career triple-double with 13 points, 10 assists and 10 rebounds. Her 10 rebounds also was a career high. Prahalis is the first Buckeye since Jessica Davenport (17 points, 10 rebounds, 11 blocks at Minnesota, Feb. 8, 2007) to achieve such a feat.

GAME 23

Feb. 10, 2011 • Columbus, Ohio • Nationwide Arena
Ohio State 90, Purdue 67

After a week of struggles, Ohio State finally looked the team we all know and love. Behind swarming defensive pressure and a potent offensive attack, the Buckeyes raced their way to a 90-67 win over visiting Purdue in front of 4,611 fans downtown at Nationwide Arena. Senior Jantel Lavender led five Buckeyes in double-figures with 21 points, Tayler Hill and Brittany Johnson each scored 17 and Samantha Prahalis added a double-double with 12 points and 12 assists as Ohio State snapped a three-game losing streak and improved its record to 14-9 and 5-6 in conference play. The loss dips Purdue to 16-9 and 6-6. The Buckeyes forced a season-high 22 turnovers and hit 22-of-28 from the line while committing just nine turnovers. Already up 48-32 with 18:16 remaining, the Buckeyes wasted no time putting the game away with a 15-4 run, capped off by a Hill three-pointer to put Ohio State up by 27 with 13:34 to go. A Johnson three-pointer 5 minutes later gave Ohio State its biggest lead at 77-47. Freshman Ashley Adams had another solid game with 10 points, six boards and three blocks. Classmate Martina Ellerbe chipped in off the bench with eight points while Lavender just missed her 14th double-double of the season with nine boards. Ohio State raced out to a 44-27 lead in the first half behind a balanced scoring attack. Lavender led all scorers with 12 while Hill, Prahalis and Johnson each scored eight and Ashley Adams six. Johnson capped off the opening 20 minutes with a deep 3-pointer at the buzzer. The Buckeyes shot 45.5 percent from the field in the first half and made 12-of-15 at the line while Purdue made zero trips to the stripe. Defensively, Ohio State turned up the pressure, forcing 13 first-half turnovers and turning those into 14 points. Purdue's Courtney Moses led the Boilers with 10 points at the half.

GAME 24

Feb. 13, 2011 • Minneapolis, Minn.
Ohio State 83, Minnesota 76

History was made Feb. 13 inside The Barn in Minneapolis as Jantel Lavender became Ohio State's all-time scoring leader. But the only stat that mattered to the senior All-American was win No. 15. Lavender led all scorers with 29 points to lead the Buckeyes to an 83-76 win over Minnesota at Williams Arena and break Katie Smith's record of 2,578 points set back in 1996. "I was aware of it coming in, but I didn't really know how many I needed (to break the record)," Lavender said after the game. "All I'm really focused on right now is getting wins. That's all I'm really concerned about right now." Lavender now owns the record all to herself with 2,587 points. She set the mark with her layup at the 16:28 mark of the second half that put Ohio State up by one, 46-45. The outcome, however, went down to the wire in a game featuring 17 ties and 10 lead changes. With the score tied at 71-all with 2:39 left, Ohio State would score the next seven points, starting with a Samantha Prahalis three-pointer from the left wing and four Tayler Hill free throws to put Ohio State up 78-71 with 54 seconds left. The Gophers, however, didn't fold as Jackie Voigt hit a three on Minnesota's next possession to cut it to four. Then, after an Ashley Adams free throw, UM's Kiara Buford raced back the other way and hit a running layup to cut it to three, 79-76, with 25 seconds left. But that was as close as the Gophers would get as Ohio State hit all four free throws in the final seconds to secure the win. Playing in front of her hometown family and friends, Hill would go on to tie a career-high with 19 points while dishing out a career-high seven assists and sinking 9 of 10 from the line. Prahalis scored 11 and dished out a game-high eight assists while the vast-improving Adams recorded her first career double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds to go along with six blocks. Buford led Minnesota with 23 points and six assists while Katie Loberg and Jackie Voigt chipped in with 18 and 17 points, respectively.

GAME 25

Feb. 17, 2011 • Columbus, Ohio
Ohio State 89, #23 Penn State 67

Jantel Lavender had 23 points and 11 rebounds, Samantha Prahali added 21 points and 11 assists, and Ohio State beat No. 23/25 Penn State 89-67 at Value City Arena. With her eighth assist just before halftime, Prahali broke Jamie Lewis' career assist record with her 644th helper, marking the second straight game that an OSU record has fallen after Lavender captured the scoring title at Minnesota. Tayler Hill tied a career high once again 19 points for the second straight game to help the Buckeyes (16-9, 7-6 Big Ten) win their third straight. Still, Ohio State was eliminated from the contention for its seventh straight regular season conference title when Michigan's State beat Northwestern 74-60. However, the Buckeyes know they have plenty to play for when it comes to positioning for the Big Ten and NCAA tournaments. "We have to try and win to get a higher bid in the tournament so we don't have to play four games (in a row)," Lavender said. "I think our team recognizes the sense of urgency we need to have in these last few games." Zhaque Gray and Mia Nickson had 14 points for the Lady Lions (21-7, 10-4), who fell 1 1/2 games behind the Spartans. Ohio State had a 23-point lead with 14:40 to play. After Penn State pulled within 10, the Buckeyes scored seven consecutive points to increase the advantage to 74-57 with 6 minutes remaining. Defensively, Ohio State forced a season-high 27 turnovers in handing Penn State its worst loss of the 2010-11 season. The Buckeyes held PSU's top two scorers, Maggie Lucas and Alex Bentley, to just 12 points total. The Nittany Lions, winless in their last six trips to Columbus, were looking for their first season series sweep since 2000-01.

GAME 26

Feb. 20, 2011 • West Lafayette, Ind.
Ohio State 76, Purdue 74

Senior Brittany Johnson hit five second-half three-pointers, including the game winner with 0.7 seconds remaining, to give Ohio State a thrilling come-from-behind win over Purdue, 76-74, at a raucous Mackey Arena. Trailing by one with 14 seconds left, Jantel Lavender caught the ball on the post and looked to score. Fending off a double team, Lavender pivoted to the baseline and slung a pass out to a wide open Johnson in the corner who buried the three as the Ohio State bench erupted. Purdue led by as much as 11 points in the second half as the Buckeyes slowly chipped away at the Boilermakers lead. Samantha Prahali gave Ohio State its first lead of the second half with a three-pointer from the left wing with 44 seconds left. Then after a Purdue timeout, Antionette Howard drove the lane and converted a layup with 21 seconds left to put the Boilers back on top, 74-73. Then after Ohio State burned its final timeout, Johnson saved the day with her trey from the corner. Lavender led the Buckeyes with 23 points and nine rebounds. Prahali added 19 points and four assists while Johnson finished with 15 and Tayler Hill 12. Freshman Ashley Adams recorded a career-high seven blocked shots to go along with four points and six boards. With Purdue leading 38-31 at the half, Ohio State opened the second period on a 9-2 run over the first 5 minutes to tie the score at 40. However, a Drey Mingo layup on Purdue's next possession sparked a 12-3 run by the Boilermakers before Hill stopped the bleeding with her first three of the night. Behind a three-pointer by Purdue's Courtney Moses and the inside play of Drey Mingo in the second half, the Boilermakers pushed their lead back to 10 on two occasions before Johnson caught fire, hitting three 3-pointers over the next four minutes to cut the lead to two and put Ohio State in position to pull out the win in the final minutes.

GAME 27

Feb. 24, 2011 • East Lansing, Mich.
Ohio State 54, #10/8 Michigan State 53

Ohio State had finally lost its grip on the Big Ten title, and to add insult to injury, the Buckeyes happened to be the visiting team on the night Michigan State planned its championship celebration. Jantel Lavender and the Buckeyes did the only thing they could: They beat the Spartans again. Lavender scored 24 points, and Ohio State spoiled Michigan State's conference title celebration with a 54-53 win. Michigan State had already clinched at least a share of the Big Ten title, but the Spartans couldn't celebrate an outright championship until shortly after the game -- when Penn State lost to Purdue. Lavender's free throw with 1:50 remaining was the game's final point. Michigan State's last chance came after a shot clock violation with 10.5 seconds remaining, but Jasmine Thomas missed from about 18 feet under heavy pressure from Ohio State's Amber Stokes. Ohio State won both meetings against Michigan State this season, which had to take some of the sting out of the Spartans' postgame celebration, which included a trophy and a new banner that was raised to the rafters. Michigan State had its 20-game winning streak at the Breslin Center snapped. Lykendrea Johnson more than held her own against Lavender down low, collecting 16 points and 17 rebounds. Michigan State had 17 offensive rebounds but shot only 33 percent from the field in a physical game. With 13:30 remaining and her team ahead by two, Michigan State's Kalisha Keane left the court with a streak of blood running down the left side of her face. It wasn't clear how she'd been hurt, but she missed five minutes of game time before returning. Merchant said Keane had four stitches around her eye. Keane tied it at 53 when she scored inside while being fouled, but she missed the free throw. After Lavender put the Buckeyes ahead, the teams traded empty possessions before the Spartans got the ball back under their own basket with one more chance. After a timeout, Thomas tried to push the ball up the court quickly, but the 5-foot-10 Stokes was relentless, slowing her down and limiting her options.

GAME 28

Feb. 27, 2011 • Columbus, Ohio
Ohio State 80, Wisconsin 47

Ohio State stormed out of the gates and never looked back in an 80-47 win over Wisconsin at Value City Arena, sending a message that the Buckeyes will be a team to be reckoned with this postseason. Playing in their final games at Value City Arena, Jantel Lavender, Sarah Schulze, Brittany Johnson and Alison Jackson combined to score 36 points, led by Lavender's 20. The senior from Cleveland, Ohio, who recorded a double-double in her very first collegiate game at VCA in 2007, closed out her career with a double-double with 20 points and 10 rebounds. After Wisconsin opened the game on a 4-0 run, the Buckeyes answered with a 17-0 run over a 5-minute span to take a 17-4 lead as the route was on. The Buckeyes eventually led 39-14 at the half, holding the Badgers to 16.1 percent from the field (5-of-31) as Wisconsin missed 19 in a row at one point. Ohio State, meanwhile, shot 51.7 percent in the first 20 minutes and were led by Lavender's 16 points and three blocks. The Badgers never got closer than 21 points in the second half. Leading 39-18 at the 18:04 mark, Ohio State blew the game wide open with a 14-2 run over the next 3 1/2 minutes, highlighted by two three pointers from Johnson, to extend its lead to 53-20. Defensively, Ohio State held Wisconsin's top two scorers, Alyssa Karel (15.0 ppg) and Lin Zastrow (13.9 ppg), to just nine and four points, respectively, on a combined 4-of-30 from the field. Samantha Prahalis was on her game early Sunday afternoon, scoring 15 points and dishing out seven assists with just one turnover. Tayler Hill chipped in with 12 points and five boards and Ashley Adams turned in another solid all-around game with eight points, seven boards and four blocks. Johnson finished with nine on three 3-pointers.

GAME 31

March 6, 2011 • Indianapolis, Ind.
Ohio State 84, Penn State 70
Big Ten Tournament Championship

Ohio State's Jantel Lavender already had scripted the final chapter of her record-setting Big Ten career. Leave Indianapolis as a champion -- again. The four-time Big Ten player of the year and junior Samantha Prahalis delivered on the promise Sunday, each scoring 23 points to lead fifth-seeded Ohio State past second-seeded Penn State 84-70 for the Buckeyes' record-tying third consecutive tourney title. OSU has now won nine straight, are headed to their ninth consecutive NCAA tourney and became the only second team in the 17-year history of the Big Ten tourney to win three titles in a row. Purdue also did it from 1998-2000. And Lavender became the first player in tourney history to win three Most Outstanding Player awards. Prahalis scored 14 points in the first half when the Buckeyes took control. Lavender matched that total in the second half, extending her NCAA record of consecutive double-figure scoring games to 133. The Buckeyes also set a new championship game scoring record. Prahalis' quick moves and nifty passes led to nine assists, leaving her only six behind Penn State's Helen Darling as the career leader in Big Ten tourney play. Mia Nickson led the regular-season runner-ups with 17 points and Indy native Alex Bentley had 16 points. But after shooting 43 percent from 3-point range this season, Penn State was just 6 of 19 from beyond the arc Sunday -- losing its fifth straight title game since winning the first two crowns. Ohio State took control with an early 9-0 run, turning a 12-8 deficit into a 17-12 lead. The Buckeyes still led 44-39 at the break, and then Lavender dominated the second half. She scored six straight points during one early flurry, turning a five-point cushion into a 55-44 Ohio State lead. After Prahalis' steal and coast-to-coast layup, Lavender, the trailer on a fast break, put in another layup. She followed that with a 15-foot turnaround jumper and Tayler Hill then hit a 15-footer to give Ohio State a 63-48 lead with 12:40 to go. The Nittany Lions never got closer than nine the rest of the game.

GAME 32

March 19, 2011 • Columbus, Ohio
Ohio State 80, UCF 69
NCAA First Round

Jantel Lavender didn't disappoint in the first round of the NCAA tournament, scoring 30 points and grabbing 11 rebounds to lead the fourth-seeded Buckeyes past pesky Central Florida 80-69. The only four-time Big Ten player of the year, Lavender scored in transition, on medium-range jumpers and on her patented drop-step move on the block. The Buckeyes (23-9) improved to 60-15 when she hits double digits in points and rebounds in the same game. Samantha Prahalis had 19 points and 10 assists and Brittany Johnson had 14 points for Ohio State. Despite not having a starter taller than 5-foot-10 -- the Buckeyes went with 6-5, 6-4 and 5-11 in their frontcourt -- UCF (22-11) more than held its own on the boards (a 39-33 advantage) and wasn't afraid to drive the lane. The Knights never backed down from the Big Ten tournament champions, who stretched their winning streak to 10 in a row. But in order to hang around, they knew they couldn't afford to commit two players to guarding Lavender. Up just 62-55 after Chelsie Wiley hit two free throws with 10:12 left, the Buckeyes ran off the next 11 points. Lavender had only two points in the run but contributed with her rebounding, defense and passing. Still, the Knights didn't fold. They came back with a 10-0 run -- capped by Wiley's 3 and a bucket by Daniels off Gevenia Carter's steal to cut it to 73-65 with 2:22 left. The rally faltered when they failed to score over the next 2 minutes. With 1:21 left, after Lavender rebounded a missed layup, Prahalis dribbled in a circle around two picks and completed the three-point play to push the lead back to 76-65. The Buckeyes never trailed after the opening minutes, but that didn't mean it was easy.

GAME 33

March 21, 2011 • Columbus, Ohio
Ohio State 67, Georgia Tech 60
NCAA Second Round

Jantel Lavender scored 17 of her 21 points in the second half to set an NCAA record with her 135th straight double-figure scoring game, leading Ohio State past Georgia Tech 67-60 Monday night in the second round of the NCAA tournament. Lavender, who had been tied with Oklahoma's Courtney Paris with 134 consecutive games of 10 or more points, also grabbed 11 rebounds. She dominated in the paint as the Buckeyes advanced to a regional semifinal Saturday against top-seeded Tennessee in Dayton. It took a star turn in the second half for the decorated senior -- she received her diploma on Sunday -- to carry the Buckeyes into the regionals. The Buckeyes have often been criticized for failing to get past the second round in six of the last eight years under coach Jim Foster. Samantha Prahalis added 16 points and eight assists, and Ashley Adams scored 11 for the fourth-seeded Buckeyes (24-9), who have won 11 in a row. Down 35-34 after Sasha Goodlett scored inside for the Yellow Jackets with 17:42 left, the Buckeyes -- and Lavender -- took over the game. Lavender hit an 8-foot jumper for the lead, then scored on consecutive fast-break passes from Prahalis to push the lead to 40-35. After a basket by Chelsea Regins for Georgia Tech, Lavender had nine points and Tayler Hill the other four in a 13-3 run that stretched the lead to 53-40. The Yellow Jackets never got closer than seven points again. Metra Walther had 15 points to lead the fifth-seeded Yellow Jackets (24-11), who have never advanced past the second round in seven NCAA appearances. Goodlett and Tyaunna Marshall each had 12 points for Georgia Tech, which led by as many as four early in the second half before an unfriendly crowd at Ohio State's backup home, St. John Arena.

GAME 34

March 26, 2011 • Dayton, Ohio
Tennessee 85, Ohio State 75
NCAA Dayton Regional

Shekinna Stricklen scored 20 points and touched off a critical 11-3 second-half run to power top-seeded Tennessee past Ohio State 85-75 in a NCAA regional semifinal. The Lady Vols only took control with their charge in the final minutes against the fourth-seeded Buckeyes. Samantha Prahalis had 22 points, Jantel Lavender 19, Brittany Johnson 16 and Tayler Hill 12 for Ohio State (24-10), which had won its last 11. With the game hanging in the balance and Tennessee on top 58-57, Stricklen twice made big plays to provide some breathing room. First, she hit a deep, deep 3 as the shot clock was draining away. After an Ohio State miss, she took the ball from the right wing and bulled her way along the baseline to power in a layup for a 63-57 lead. After Johnson hit another 3 from the left corner for Ohio State, the Lady Vols ran off six points in a row for their largest lead of the game. Simmons stopped and popped in a shot from 15 feet, Taber Spani made a follow and then Spani drilled a long jumper to make it 69-60. Ohio State got as close as eight points in the last minute, but Stricklen scored seven in a row for the Lady Vols to easily hold onto the lead. Down 42-40 at the half, the Lady Vols started to swing the game because they picked up the pace. Two long passes resulted in easy baskets by Stricklen and Glory Johnson, who finished with 11 rebounds to go with her nine points. At the other end, the Buckeyes, who got off to a torrid shooting start, suddenly could not find the basket. After shooting 67 percent in the opening half, Ohio State mustered just 39.5 percent in the second half. Ohio State came out with one of its finest efforts of the season from the outset. The Buckeyes hit 12 of their first 16 shots from the field -- and were 2 for 2 behind the arc and 4 of 4 at the line -- to take a surprising 30-25 lead. The Lady Vols regrouped to retake the lead only to have the Buckeyes build their biggest lead of the half at 42-36 with just over a minute left in the half.

FRANI WASHINGTON 1979 ALL-AMERICAN

When Frani Washington, Ohio State's first All-American, played women's basketball teams were not playing for Big Ten championships and berths in the NCAA tournament. There was a Big Ten tournament in 1979, but the conference did not sponsor a championship in the sport. Instead, the postseason consisted of the Ohio Association of Intercollegiate Sports for Women (OAISW) and the Midwest Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (MAIAW) tournaments.

Washington was the standout of the 1978-79 Ohio State squad that finished with a 19-11 record and advanced to the MAIAW tournament under head coach Mary Wilson. During that season, the Toledo, Ohio, native scored 711 points, an Ohio State single-season record she held until the 1995-96 season. Moreover, Washington's 39-point explosion against Tennessee on Dec. 12, 1978 stood atop the single game records for 16 years. Washington scored 30 or more points in five contests and 20 or more in 21 of the Buckeyes' 30 games, averaging 23.7 points per game.

The statistics show Washington was an all-around player. In addition to her scoring talent, the 5-foot-6 forward led the team in steals (81) and ranked second in assists (98) and rebounds (212) during the 1978-79 season. She was named an All-American in 1979.

TRACEY HALL 1987/88 ALL-AMERICAN

WHERE IS SHE NOW?

Tracey (Hall) Yarbrough began her professional playing career after graduating with a communications degree from Ohio State. She played for six weeks in place of an injured member on a professional squad in Parma, Italy. After the season, Yarbrough was offered a contract to play in the league for another year on a team based in Bari, Italy. Yarbrough turned down a second full year in the European league to concentrate on interests outside of basketball. The WNBA approached Yarbrough when the league was coming into existence, but Yarbrough declined the offer because of bad timing. Yarbrough is living and working in her home town of Cleveland, Ohio, in the insurance industry. She is married to Reese and the couple has two sons, Tyrese and Danté.

Tracey Hall, Ohio State's second basketball All-American, etched an impressive line of records during the first decade of women's NCAA intercollegiate competition.

The Big Ten's first two-time Kodak All-American (1987, 1988), Hall's impact on the conference was immediate. The talented forward captured Big Ten freshman of the year and second team All-Big Ten laurels in 1985. She went on to claim the conference's top honor, player of the year, in 1986 and '87, while being selected first team All-Big Ten in 1986, '87 and '88.

To gain a true sense of Hall's dominance, however, take a look in OSU's record book, where her impact has been long-lasting. The Cleveland Heights, Ohio, native ranks second on both the school's all-time scoring ledger with 1,912 points and the career field-goal percentage list (.600). She continues to own the all-time school records for rebounds (1,115) and ranks second in field goals made (807), fourth for games played (122), third in career steals (259) and fourth in blocks (109).

During the 1986-87 campaign she recorded a then-single-season mark for field goal percentage, connecting on 62 percent of her attempts. Hall also is the first and only Ohio State player to collect more than 300 rebounds in a season.

On the way to amassing these records, Hall started every game of her collegiate career, scored double figures in 101 games, notched double-digit rebounding efforts in 50 contests and combined scoring and rebounding for 39 double-double performances from 1985-88.

With Hall's talent and leadership, the Buckeyes compiled three consecutive Big Ten championships (1985-87) and a four-year conference record of 67-5. OSU's overall mark during the Hall era was 102-20 (.836), which included four trips to the NCAA tournament and just one step away from the Final Four with berths in the regional finals in 1985 and '87.

In international competition, Hall competed for the ABA/USA Select team in 1986 and the World University Games team in 1987. She was also invited to the U.S. Olympic Team tryouts in 1988.

Hall graduated in 1988 with a degree in communications. She was inducted into the Ohio State Sports Hall of Fame in September 1998 and had her No. 44 retired in 2009 in Value City Arena.

NIKITA LOWRY 1989 ALL-AMERICAN

WHERE IS SHE NOW?

Nikita Lowry-Dawkins recently returned for a second stint as an assistant coach at Old Dominion University. Lowry-Dawkins first coached at ODU from 2004-05 before accepting an assistant position at Texas Tech for the 2005-06 campaign. A 2000 Ohio State Hall of Fame inductee, Lowry-Dawkins began her coaching career at Michigan in 1991 before returning to her alma mater in 1993 for a three-year stint as an assistant coach for the Buckeyes. She left in 1996 to take over at Detroit, where her teams captured Midwestern Collegiate Conference (MCC) titles and made the school's first-ever NCAA appearance in 1997. Lowry-Dawkins spent three years as both an assistant and head coach at New Mexico State University. Internationally, Lowry-Dawkins served as an assistant coach on the gold-medal winning 2002 USA Young Women's World Championship Team. Following her collegiate career, Lowry-Dawkins spent one year abroad playing for the Italmeco Bari Club in Bari, Italy. She was married to Tony Dawkins Aug. 14, 2004.

Ohio State's string of All-Americans continued on the heels of Tracey Hall's graduation in 1988 as Nikita Lowry, a Kodak All-Region selection in 1988, became the Buckeyes' third All-American in 1989.

The 6-foot forward gave a preview of her future success as a sophomore. Although she was not in the starting lineup, Lowry ranked second on the team in scoring (13.6 ppg) and led the squad in free throw accuracy (.767). In fact, Lowry prevailed as the only non-starter among the Big Ten's Top 15 scorers. A native of Detroit, Mich., her efforts did not go unnoticed, as she claimed second team All-Big Ten honors and OSU's sixth player award.

Lowry dominated the Big Ten as a junior. She led the conference in scoring (23.7 ppg), becoming the first OSU player to average more than 20 points in a season since Frani Washington in 1978-79. Lowry also paced the conference in field-goal percentage (.616) and steals (3.1 spg) and co-led in the rebounding column (8.4 rpg). Lowry's "break out" year included a 28-point, 12-rebound performance to help OSU beat then-No. 1 Iowa (58-54) before a sellout crowd of 13,320 in St. John Arena. Additionally, she established career highs for scoring (36 points against Illinois) and rebounding (14, two times at Cal-State Fullerton and Iowa) and capped the campaign with a unanimous first team All-Big Ten pick and OSU's most valuable player award.

An off-season knee injury slowed Lowry's progress at the start of her senior season. The Buckeyes opened the 1988-89 campaign ranked in the polls, but lost three of their first five games. Lowry, however, came back to lead the Big Ten in scoring for the second straight year with an average of nearly 19 points per game. The team ended the season with an overall record of 24-6 and as co-champions in the Big Ten with a 16-2 conference mark. In addition to earning All-America honors, Lowry was a unanimous first team All-Big Ten selection and winner of the Chicago Tribune's Silver Basketball award.

Graduating in 1990 with a bachelor of science degree in economics, she has enjoyed coaching stops at Michigan, Ohio State, Detroit and New Mexico State. Lowry was hired as an assistant at Old Dominion University in the summer of 2002.

In September 2000, Lowry was honored with an induction into the Ohio State Sports Hall of Fame.

KATIE SMITH 1993/96 ALL-AMERICAN

WHERE IS SHE NOW?

Since her time at Ohio State, Katie Smith has won three Olympic gold medals for Team USA in 2000, 2004 and 2008. In 2006 she collected her first WNBA championship with the Detroit Shock and her second in 2008. In 2005, she became the first women's professional basketball player to score 5,000 career points and topped 6,000 in 2007 (ABL and WNBA). Also in 2005, she served as a student assistant in the Ohio State women's basketball office, while taking classes in preparation for application to dental school. In 2006, Smith earned her seventh WNBA All-Star appearance and is the all-time scoring leader in the history of U.S. women's professional basketball (ABL and WNBA).

Touted as the most sought after high school basketball player, it didn't take long for Logan, Ohio, native Katie Smith to become a household name across the country.

Leading the way with an 18.8 scoring average, Smith steered the Ohio State program back into the national limelight as a participant in its first NCAA Final Four in 1993. The Buckeyes lost the final game of the season, 84-82, to Texas Tech, but the history-making march established a tier of success to build upon for seasons to come.

In 1993, postseason honors poured in for Smith, who became the first freshman since USC's Cheryl Miller to earn Kodak All-America laurels. Smith also was named the 1993 Big Ten Freshman of the Year.

Over the next two years, Smith continued to maintain a captive audience. As a sophomore, Smith became one of the youngest collegiate players to score 1,000 career points at the age of 19 years and eight months. In fact, Smith paced OSU's scoring efforts four years running, averaging a career 20.8 points per game that overshadowed her dominance as the squad's assists and steals leader in each of her last two seasons.

In 1996, her finest and final season, Smith tallied an OSU single-season record 745 points on the way to becoming the Big Ten women's career scoring leader with 2,578 points - a mark that stood until 2004. Smith dominated the opposition, with 20 or more points in 22-of-34 games, including three games over the 30-point mark. She also averaged 5.1 rebounds per game and led the team with 145 assists and 46 steals in 1996.

The Buckeyes were 80-44 (.645) over her four-year stay and 124 consecutive starts. Along the way, Smith literally rewrote the Ohio State record book, amassing an amazing 10 career, six single-season and six single-game records.

Among her numerous honors, Smith became only the second player in league history (along with Buckeye Tracey Hall) to receive the prestigious Kodak All-America honor twice in her career. She also was tabbed the 1996 Big Ten Player of the Year, the Chicago Tribune Silver Basketball recipient and a unanimous first team All-Big Ten choice, her third straight honor.

A competitor in the classroom as well, Smith was a four-time OSU Scholar-Athlete, three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection and the recipient of various scholarships, including a distinguished NCAA postgraduate scholarship.

Her resume includes stints on numerous international teams, including the U.S. Olympic Team, a first for any Buckeye. Smith has been part of three gold-medal winning Olympic squads (2000, '04, and '08).

Smith was a member of the two-time champion Columbus Quest of the American Basketball League and recently closed her ninth season in the WNBA, topping 5,000 career points. Most recently, Smith led the Detroit Shock to their third WNBA championship in six seasons and was named MVP of the Finals after averaging 20.6 ppg in the three-game sweep of San Antonio.

Honors continued to pour in for Smith, whose No. 30 jersey was retired in January 2001 in front of 10,000-plus fans. In October 2001, she became the first women's basketball player inducted into the Ohio State Sports Hall of Fame in her first year of eligibility.

JESSICA DAVENPORT 2005/06/07

ALL-AMERICAN

Ohio State rode the coattails of Jessica Davenport back to the top of the Big Ten Conference and into national prominence. The only three-time Big Ten player of the year, Davenport helped the Buckeyes to a 108-22 record (.831) from 2004-07, the best four-year run in program history. Ohio State's first three-time All-American captained the Buckeyes to three-consecutive conference championships and a 55-10 (.846) record in league games.

Davenport, from Columbus Independence High School, was Ohio State's first three-time All-American and is just the 20th player overall to earn WBCA/Kodak All-America accolades three times in a career. In 2007, she became the first player in Big Ten history to record 2,000 points, 1,000 rebounds and 300 blocked shots in a career. She blocked a career total of 384 shots and ended her Buckeye run as the Big Ten's all-time leader. Her blocks total ranks seventh in NCAA history.

A consumer affairs graduate, Davenport completed her tenure with 48 career double-doubles and Ohio State's only pair of triple-doubles in points, rebounds and blocked shots. Davenport scored double-digits in 83 of her last 84 contests and amassed 2,303 career points, ranking second to Katie Smith's 2,578 from 1993-96. Davenport's point total also rates No. 5 all-time in the Big Ten. She netted 639 points to join Smith as the only Buckeye to pocket 600 points twice in a career. Davenport also pulled down 1,094 rebounds in her four years with the Scarlet and Gray to rank No. 2 at Ohio State behind Tracie Hall (1985-88). Davenport also took over as the Buckeyes' top shooter of all-time, connecting at a 60.4 rate (875-1,448).

A three-time finalist for the Wade Trophy, Davenport capped her career in grand fashion in 2007. She not only garnered her third conference player of the year award and third All-America honor, but etched her name in both the Big Ten and Ohio State record books while leading the Buckeyes to a 28-4 overall mark and fourth NCAA tournament bid in as many seasons. She topped the conference in scoring at 20 points per game and ranked second in the league in rebounds per contest (9.6) and field goal percentage (.597/ 222-372).

Davenport, who won 14 Big Ten player of the week awards for her career, fronted the Buckeyes to their best start in program history in 2006-07, winning 24 of their first 25 games. At the conclusion of the regular season, Ohio State was 26-2, the best regular campaign in Ohio State annals. In the postseason, Davenport fueled Ohio State to the Big Ten tournament championship game with back-to-back 30- and 32-point performances to reach the final. She notched career triple-double No. 2 with 17 points, 10 rebounds and 11 blocked shots at Minn. Feb. 8, while also becoming the Big Ten's career blocked shots leader.

The Buckeyes performed the Big Ten title sweep in Davenport's junior campaign of 2005-06. Ohio State moved through the conference schedule at 15-1 for the Buckeyes' first outright championship since the 1985-86 season. Ohio State won a team-record 20 games in a row and advanced to win the program's first Big Ten Tournament over Purdue. Ohio State posted a 29-3 overall record and climbed as high as No. 2 in the national polls.

Individually, Davenport claimed her second consensus Big Ten Player of the Year award, leading the conference in five statistical categories: points (18.7), rebounds (8.9), field goal percentage (.618/ 241-390), blocks (3.1) and defensive rebounds (6.8). She also was deemed All-American by the WBCA and AP for the second year in a row. Davenport posted her fifth career 30-plus point game at Michigan State with 31 points, 10 rebounds and three blocks and netted a last-second layup to win at Michigan State, 67-65.

Davenport came into her own her sophomore season, winning the first of her three conference player of the year awards and All-American honors. She began to be recognized nationally as a finalist for the Naismith, Wade and Wooden national player of the year awards. Davenport shot at a 58.7 percent clip from the field (No. 1 in Big Ten) in all games and finished at 60.4 percent (No. 1) in league games. She topped the Buckeyes with 19.3 points per game and 9.3 rebounds per outing and was the Big Ten's top shot-blocker with 3.4 per game.

Davenport finished the 2004-05 season with 14 double-doubles and became the only the third sophomore to in Ohio State history to eclipse 1,000 points in her career. Earlier in the year, she was the first player in Buckeye history to record a triple-double: 19 points, 13 rebounds, 12 blocked shots at Michigan State. Her twelve blocks tied the Buckeye single-game record. She played five-consecutive 40-minute games to end regular season and led Ohio State to its first appearance in the NCAA Sweet 16 since 1993.

Just weeks after completing her career as the most decorated Buckeye in program history, Davenport was selected No. 2 overall in the 2007 WNBA Draft by San Antonio. Midway through her press conference, Davenport was informed she had been traded to the New York Liberty. Davenport helped the Liberty reach the 2007 WNBA playoffs. New York dropped the Eastern Conference Finals series to Detroit and former Buckeye standout Katie Smith, 3-2. Davenport's Liberty again reached the conference finals in 2008, only to see their season cut short by Smith and the Shock once again. In 2011, Davenport and the No. 1 seed Indiana Fever reached the Eastern Conference finals.

Davenport also has continued to be a staple in the paint for USA Basketball. Davenport competed on three U.S. squads following her collegiate seasons in 2005, '06 and '07. In 2005, she teamed with fellow Buckeye Brandie Hoskins to bring home the gold medal at the World University Games in Izmir, Turkey. In 2006, Davenport linked up with the senior national team and former Buckeye Katie Smith to claim gold at the Australian Opals Tournament. Davenport helped the Americans sweep four games on an Italian tour in 2007.

Davenport also attacked her duties in the classroom. She was a two-time OSU Scholar-Athlete and also an Academic All-Big Ten honoree en route to earning her bachelor's degree in consumer affairs in March 2007.

In the WNBA offseason Davenport plays professionally in France.

JANTEL LAVENDER 2009/10/11 ALL-AMERICAN

Jantel Lavender made a convincing case as the greatest Buckeye ever and broke several school, Big Ten and NCAA records along the way to becoming Ohio State's second three-time All-American.

Lavender led the Buckeyes to three Big Ten regular season championships, three Big Ten tournament titles and four NCAA tournament appearances, including two trips to the Sweet 16.

As a senior in 2010-11, Lavender made history, becoming the first Big Ten player (men's or women's) in conference history to win player of the year honors all four years and became the only women's basketball player among the Big Ten, ACC, Big East, Big 12, Pac-10 or SEC to accomplish the feat. Lavender also earned WBCA/State Farm and USBWA All-America honors for the third consecutive year and Associated Press first team honors for the second straight season.

A product of Central Catholic High School in Cleveland, Ohio, Lavender left Columbus as Ohio State's all-time leading scorer (2,818 points) and became only the second player in Big Ten history to record at least 2,800 points. Along the way, she became the Big Ten's all-time rebounding leader (1,422), set a Value City Arena record with 22 caroms in one game and set an Ohio State single-season record with 774 points.

Her records didn't stop there. Incredibly, Lavender scored in double-figures in all 136 career games, which is an NCAA record for consecutive games with at least 10 points, and set a school-record 136 consecutive starts.

Lavender led the Big Ten and ranked sixth in the NCAA with 22.8 ppg as a senior and led the Big Ten and ranked 15th in the NCAA with 10.9 rebounds. A great shooting touch from anywhere on the court, Lavender shot 54.8 percent from the field, which was tops in the Big Ten, and had five 30-point games. She finished her senior year on a tear, winning 2011 Big Ten Tournament Most Outstanding Player honors for a record third year while averaging 23.7 points per game, 12.7 rebounds and 4.0 assists and shooting 63.8 percent from the field in the three wins. Furthermore, she set a tournament single-game scoring record with 37 points in the semifinal win over No. 1 seed Michigan State.

In 2009-10, Lavender became the fourth two-time All-American in OSU history and became the fifth WBCA All-America selection at Ohio State in the past six years. Lavender averaged 21.4 points, 10.3 rebounds and shot 51.4 percent from the field as a junior in leading Ohio State to a record 31 wins, a sixth straight Big Ten regular season and second straight tournament title. Lavender, who became the first Buckeye to score 2,000 points in her junior season, won Big Ten player of the year honors for the third year in a row and was one of 12 finalists for the State Farm Wade Trophy. She also was the Big Ten tournament most outstanding player after setting a tournament championship game record with 35 points in the win over Iowa.

In 2008-09, Lavender was the Big Ten player of the year for a second straight season, joining Hall and Davenport as the only two-time Ohio State recipients. She was only the second player in Big Ten history to complete the statistical triple crown, leading the conference in scoring (20.8), rebounding (10.7) and field goal percentage (.541). She scored in double figures in all 35 games with 24 double-doubles and set a Big Ten single-season record with 374 rebounds.

Lavender, who set a Big Ten record with 19 career player of the week honors, was the only Division I player to rank in the Top 20 in scoring, rebounding and FG percentage and was the Big Ten tournament's Most Outstanding Player, averaging 22.7 points and 13.7 rebounds while shooting 64 percent from the field with three double-doubles in the three victories over Illinois, Iowa and Purdue. In the process, she set a single tournament record with 41 rebounds, including 17 in the Iowa game, the second-most in tournament history.

Lavender led the Buckeyes in scoring in 28 of 35 games that season, led the Big Ten with 21 games of 20 or more points and had two games with 30 or more. She was named the Big Ten player of the week five times and became the second-fastest player in the history of Ohio State women's basketball to score 1,000 points.

Lavender earned All-America honors in 2009 after a banner sophomore season that saw the Buckeyes win the Big Ten regular-season and tournament championship with a berth in the NCAA Sweet 16. She repeated in 2010 after helping the Buckeyes to a record sixth-consecutive Big Ten title and a school-record 31 wins.

Upon graduating with her degree in Human Ecology, Lavender was drafted 5th overall in the 2011 WNBA Draft by the Los Angeles Sparks.

FOSTER, NCAA AND THE BUCKEYES

Jim Foster is no stranger to NCAA action, having advanced to the tournament 25 times in his last 27 years of coaching at St. Joseph's (Pa.), Vanderbilt and Ohio State. In Foster's nine seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes have earned No. 1 (2006), No. 2 (2005, 2010), No. 3 (2009), No. 4 (2003, 2007, 2011) and No. 6 (2004, 2008) seeds in the big dance and have upped their overall appearance total to 20. Ohio State has earned at least a second-round finish in seven of nine seasons under Foster, including trips to the Sweet 16 in 2005, 2009 and 2011.

NO. 1 SEED AND THE FURTHEST TRIP

In 1993, Ohio State received its first No. 1 seed, playing in the east regional hosted in Richmond, Va. The Buckeyes defeated Western Kentucky and Virginia and became the first Big Ten team to advance to a Final Four and to play in a national championship game (vs. Texas Tech). The Buckeyes fell two points shy of the Red Raiders (84-82) in the final game.

NCAA FINISHES

Besides the 1993 Final Four trip, the Buckeyes have advanced twice to the Elite Eight (1985, 1987) and have been "Sweet 16" participants on six occasions (1986, 1988, 1989, 2005, 2009, 2011). Ohio State's participation also includes five first (1982, 1984, 1999, 2007, 2008) and six second round (1990, 1996, 2003, 2004, 2006, 2010) finishes.

BIG TEN TOURNEY TIDBITS

- Since 1995, when the Big Ten postseason tournament was reinstated, the Buckeyes are 30-13 and have lost their first game of the tournament only once.
- Ohio State earned its record sixth-consecutive No. 1 seed at the 2010 Big Ten Tournament. Previously, the Buckeyes' No. 3-seed in 2004 was the highest for an OSU squad. Ohio State has reserved a bye in the first round of the conference tournament eight times.
- Ohio State's 2006 Big Ten Tournament title was the first in program history. The Buckeyes earned their second-consecutive No. 1 seed and ran the table, finishing with a 63-60 win over Purdue in the finals. The Buckeyes won their second title in 2009 with a 67-66 win over Purdue, their third in 2010 with a 66-64 win over No. 3 seed Iowa and a fourth in 2011 with an 84-70 win over No. 2 seed Penn State.
- Three of the four Ohio State championship game victories have been by three points or less (63-60 vs. Purdue in 2006; 67-66 vs. Purdue in 2009; 66-64 vs. Iowa in 2010).
- The Buckeyes tied a conference record with their third consecutive tournament title in 2011 (Purdue 1998-2000).
- Jantel Lavender set a Big Ten Tournament record for points scored in a championship game with 35 against Iowa in 2010 and set a tournament record with 37 in the 2011 semifinal win over No. 1 seed Michigan State.
- Jantel Lavender became the first player to win three straight tournament MVP honors in 2011.
- Ohio State set a Big Ten Tournament championship game record with 84 points scored in the win over Penn State in 2011.
- Jim Foster is 4-1 in Big Ten tournament title games. He is the first coach in conference history to win four tournament titles.
- Samantha Prahalis set a Big Ten tournament championship game record with nine assists vs. Penn State in 2011.
- The Buckeyes' eight blocked shots against Penn State in 2011 set a new championship game record. Their 19 assists tied the championship game record.
- Ashley Adams set a championship game record with five blocked shots in 2011.
- Jim Foster is the winningest active coach in Big Ten tournament play with 18 victories. His .782 winning percentage (18-5) is tops among active coaches.
- The Buckeyes have reached the tournament championship game in six out of 10 years under Jim Foster.
- Jim Foster is 8-1 all-time in the quarterfinal round, 6-3 in the semifinals and 4-1 in title games. Ohio State has an 14-2 mark overall since the 2006 tournament.

The Buckeyes captured their third straight tournament crown in 2011.

2009-10 OHIO STATE BUCKEYES

Big Ten Champions

Ohio State won a record-setting sixth-consecutive Big Ten regular season championship and its 13th overall with a 31-5 overall mark - a school record for wins - and a 15-3 mark in the Big Ten. No team - men's or women's - has ever won six straight Big Ten regular season titles. The Buckeyes also won their second-consecutive Big Ten tournament championship with a 66-64 win over Iowa in the championship game.

The success of the 2009-10 season earned the Buckeyes a No. 2 seed in the NCAA tournament, their eighth straight appearance in the Big Dance and the program's 19th overall. The two-seed was the highest for the Buckeyes since they were a No. 1 seed in the 2006 tournament.

Individually, Jantel Lavender was named to the State Farm/WBCA All-America team for the second straight year and was named the Big Ten player of the year for the third year in a row. Samantha Prahalis was named first team All-Big Ten with Lavender.

Ohio State also won the 2009 Preseason WNIT with a 93-72 win over Oklahoma State.

2008-09 OHIO STATE BUCKEYES

Big Ten Champions

Ohio State turned in a record-setting 2008-09 campaign, winning its record-tying fifth consecutive Big Ten regular season championship with a 15-3 conference mark. The Buckeyes recorded 29 wins, which tied for the third-most in Division I that season. The Buckeyes also won the 2009 Big Ten Tournament championship, its second tournament title in four years.

Sophomore Jantel Lavender earned State Farm/Coaches and USBWA All-America honors, Big Ten player of the year honors for the second-consecutive season and was named the Big Ten tournament's most outstanding player.

Freshman Samantha Prahalis was named Big Ten freshman of the year and was a second team selection by the media and honorable mention by the coaches. She also was named to the Berkeley Regional all-tournament team.

Jim Foster was tabbed as the conference coach of the year by his peers and by a 22-member media panel -- his fourth in the last five years.

Junior Shavelle Little became the second player in conference history to be named defensive player of the year in consecutive seasons while senior Star Allen was named All-Big Ten third team by both the coaches and the media.

The Buckeyes made a school record-tying seventh-consecutive and 18th overall appearance in the NCAA tournament. No. 3 seed Ohio State made its first Sweet 16 appearance since 2005 before bowing out to No. 2 seed and Final Four-bound Stanford.

2007-08 OHIO STATE BUCKEYES

Big Ten Champions

Ohio State claimed its fourth-consecutive Big Ten crown and made its sixth-straight appearance in the NCAA tournament in 2007-08. The Buckeyes finished 22-9 overall and boasted a 13-5 conference mark.

Ohio State was led by sensational freshman Jantel Lavender, who enjoyed the greatest season by a Buckeye freshman since Katie Smith in 1993. Lavender was voted the 2008 Big Ten co-Player of the Year (coaches), becoming the first Big Ten freshman — men or women's — to win player of the year honors. She also was named the Big Ten player of the week a record four times by a freshman. An honorable mention Associated Press All-American, Lavender was the second-leading freshman scorer (17.6 ppg) and third-leading freshman rebounder (9.9 rpg) in the nation and ranked among the Top 3 in the Big Ten in scoring, rebounding and FG percentage (.513).

Sophomore Shavelle Little fought through a knee injury a majority of the season, but still took home Big Ten defensive player of the year honors despite not playing at 100 percent the last two months of the season. She led the Big Ten with 2.7 steals per game.

Senior Marscilla Packer was a second-team All-Big Ten selection while junior Ashlee Trebilcock received honorable mention honors.
